

August 2009 College of William and Mary Applied Research Center Student Newsletter Luau Edition

Nick, Brandt, and Maegan eat snow cones as they watch people enjoy their time at the luau.

Nick and Brandt are enjoying their time at the luau.

Here is the front of the tent that the crew from the William and Mary labs decorated.

Along with food and beverages, the luau contained water slides for kids to enjoy.

Here, Hui Tian is eating some of the delicious food that was available at the luau.

Song Vick is smiling with her two children, Matt and Becky, after they had gone down the water slide.
