

June 2010

College of William and Mary Applied Research Center Student Newsletter

Employee Appreciation Day Luncheon

Surface Characterization Lab personnel attended the Employee Appreciation Day luncheon on June 11, 2010. The luncheon was held on campus under the trees of the Wren Courtyard. The new William and Mary Mascot, the Griffin, made a surprise visit and some lunch attendees took advantage of the photo opportunity.

Lab Visitors

On June 16th, Dr. Helmut Baumgart and Dr. Diefeng Gu of Old Dominion University escorted a visitor through the lab.

