May 2015 - Lab News

Michael Kelley led a tour group from the U.S. Department of Energy, Office of High Energy Physics, Research and Technology Division. Michael is pictured here in our lab with Eric Colby, John Boger, and L.K. Len from the General Accelerator R&D group.

Xin Zhao from the ARC Thin Film Deposition Lab brought a group of visitors from China to our lab for a tour. Lab Tech Nick is pictured here with the group providing a demo of the Hirox microscope. Mr. Chen (center) and the other visitors were interested in seeing the surface characterization equipment available at the ARC.
