June 2018 - Lab News Update

More Researchers and Students at ISC-3, Lab 1223

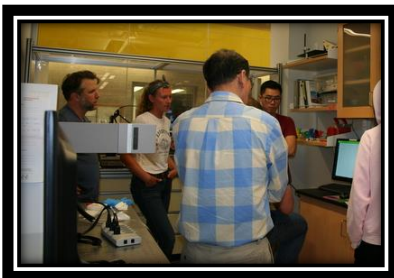

(For information, the lab phone number is 757-221-3819.)

Katya Mikhailova, a rising high school senior and lab aide for the summer, is pictured here with W&M undergraduate Kayla Cahoon, one of the recipients of the 2018 Charles Center Summer Research Scholarship, and Nick Balascio, Assistant Professor in Geology.

Olga provided training for the new Bruker AFM to group of Jefferson Lab Science Undergraduate Laboratory Internship (SULI) program participants who will be conducting research in the lab over the summer.

Will Schubert was able to provide assistance using the Phenom microscope to analyze several samples brought to the lab by the following group from Old Dominion University:

- Can Zhou, Mechanical Engineering
- Steve Nelson, Mechanical Engineering
- Jimmy Jo, Engineering and Computer Science
- Kylie Heupel, Chemical Engineering

Jeff Calhoon from IT resolved our issues with the MakerBot laptop, and we are now ready to print in 3-D.
