

Harnessing the Partnership Potential of The College of W&M and RBC:

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE
OF THE COLLEGE of WILLIAM & MARY

Explore. Prepare. Grow.

components of success

guaranteed/dual admission: symbiotic benefits

- ✦ What is it? How might we enhance it?
- ✦ What are the benefits?
 - ✦ To William and Mary
 - ✦ To RBC
 - ✦ To students
 - ✦ To VA

Emory admissions (landing page)

student ease emphasized

“Since applying to both is as easy as clicking a button on the Common App, most students do. “

automatic admissions

*Students who complete their first two years at Oxford are automatically enrolled as juniors at Emory College, with no application or transfer work necessary

-additional options to apply at Emory's nursing and business schools.

student choice emphasized

we're all about fit

joint marketing/branding

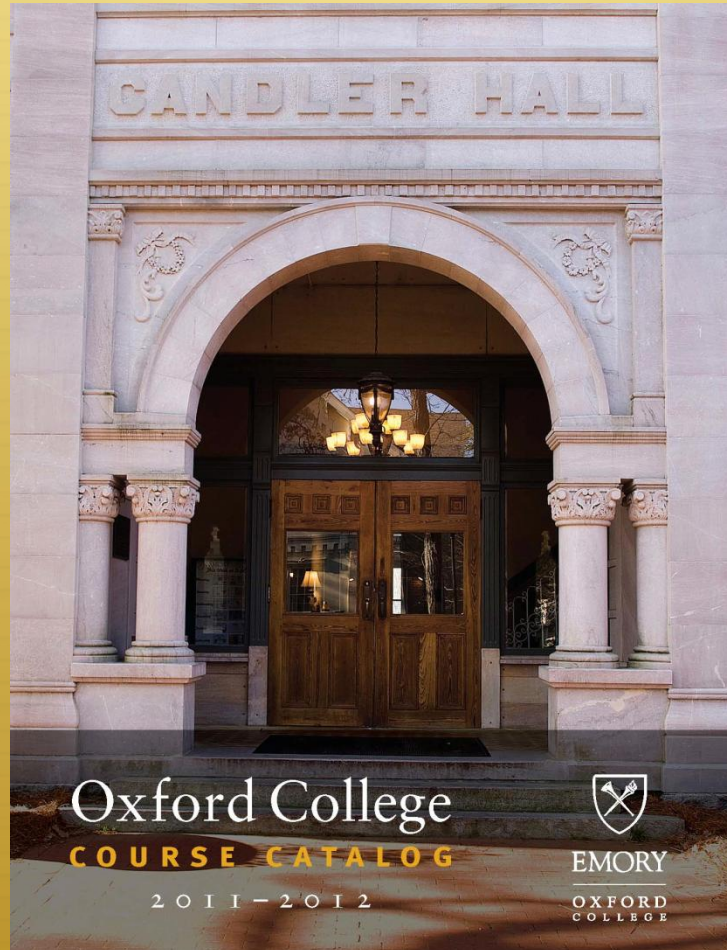

EMORY

OXFORD COLLEGE

seamless, unified web presence

faculty-driven, aligned curriculums

Benefits to Virginia: capacity building for an educated workforce

Benefits to William and Mary

- ✦ More diverse student body (SES, race/ethnicity, et al)
- ✦ Revenue: 3rd and 4th year slots at capacity

Key Benefit to William and Mary:

Compelling state response to the query: “What are you doing about the high cost of education?”

Benefit to Richard Bland College:

Enhanced institutional and academic profile, with students highly motivated to achieve their scholastic goals and successfully transfer.

Benefit to the Students:

Smaller campus with a more “intimate and nurturing start”
(1,000 students at Oxford versus 5,500 at Emory)

small school...

BIG MINDS

Benefit to the Students:

lower academic profile at the 2-year school (students perceive it will be easier to get in, but they will graduate with a prestigious degree)

Benefit to the Students

Lower Total Cost of Attendance

Early and intentional W&M relationship building, with emphasis on honors program characterized by academic learning communities with faculty from both campuses first steps already in place:

residence halls & co-enrollment

