

William & Mary School of Education

Spencer G. Niles, Dean

OUR VISION

To be a model of excellence for solving complex educational problems through innovative and participatory teaching, scholarship and community engagement.

A photograph of students in a classroom. In the foreground, a young man with dark hair is smiling and looking down, holding a pen. Behind him, a young woman with blonde hair is also smiling. The background is slightly blurred, showing other students and a bright window.

OUR MISSION

We transform students, schools, and communities through professional preparation, collaborative partnerships, and the translation of research into action.
