Each Individual Project Borrowing shall be secured on a parity with other obligations secured by the Individual Project Net Revenues relating to such Individual Project Borrowing (other than any obligations secured by a prior right in Individual Project Net Revenues). Any Individual Project Net Revenues pledged herein in excess of the Required Payments for an Individual Project Borrowing may be used by the Institution for any other lawful purpose.

Section 3. It is hereby found, determined and declared that, based upon responsible engineering and economic estimates and advice of appropriate officials of the Institution, as shown on the Financial Feasibility Study attached hereto as Exhibit A [ RBC FFS Part I and II ], with respect to each Project, the anticipated Individual Project Net Revenues pledged herein will be sufficient to pay the Required Payments for such Project so long as the aggregate amount of net debt service on the Individual Project Borrowing for such Project actually payable in any bond year does not exceed the amounts assumed in the Financial Feasibility Study relating thereto.

Section 4. The Board covenants that the Institution will furnish the Treasury Board its general purpose financial statements, within 30 days of their issuance and receipt, audited by a firm of certified public accountants or the Auditor of Public Accounts which shall include a schedule of revenues and expenditures for auxiliary enterprise systems. If Individual Project Net Revenues for any Project are insufficient to pay Required Payments for such Project during such period, the Institution shall provide evidence of a plan to generate Individual Project Net Revenues for such Project sufficient to make such Required Payments in the future.

Section 5. The Board covenants that so long as any of the Project Notes are outstanding, the Institution will pay to the State Treasurer, not less than 30 days before each interest payment date, an amount estimated by the State Treasurer to be due and payable on such date as interest on the Project Notes. The Board covenants that so long as any of the Project Bonds are outstanding, the Institution will pay to the State Treasurer, not less than 30 days before each interest or principal payment date, the amount certified by the State Treasurer to be due and payable on such date as principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Project Bonds.

Section 6. The Board covenants that the Institution will pay from time to time its proportionate share of all expenses incurred in connection with the sale and issuance of any series of Bonds that includes Project Bonds or Project Notes and all expenses thereafter incurred in connection with the Bonds, including without limitation the expense of calculating any rebate to the United States of the earnings derived from the investment of gross proceeds of the Bonds, all as certified by the State Treasurer to the Institution.

September 21-23, 2016

Section 7. The Board covenants that the Institution will not take or omit to take any action the taking or omission of which will cause the Bonds to be "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including regulations issued pursuant thereto (the "Code"), or otherwise cause interest on the Bonds to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes under existing laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Institution will pay from time to time its proportional share of any rebate to the United States of the earnings derived from the investment of the gross proceeds of the Bonds.

Section 8. The Board covenants that the Institution will proceed with due diligence to undertake and complete the Projects and that the Institution will spend all of the available proceeds derived from the sale of the Project Borrowings for costs associated with the Projects and appropriated for the Projects by the General Assembly.

Section 9. The Board covenants that the Institution will not permit the proceeds of each Individual Project Borrowing to be used in any manner that would result in (a) 5% or more of such proceeds being used in a trade or business carried on by any person other than a governmental unit, as provided in Section 141(b) of the Code, (b) 5% or more of such proceeds being used with respect to any output facility within the meaning of Section 141(b)(4) of the Code, or (c) 5% or more of such proceeds being used directly or indirectly to make or finance loans to any persons other than a governmental unit, as provided in Section 141(c) of the Code. The Institution need not comply with such covenants if the Institution obtains the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that such covenants need not be complied with to prevent the interest on the Bonds from being includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 10. The Board covenants that for so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding the Institution will not enter into any operating lease, management contract or similar agreement with any person or entity, other than a state or local governmental unit, for all or any portion of any of the Projects without first obtaining the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that entering into such agreement will not cause the interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 11. The Board covenants that for so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding, the Institution will not sell or dispose of all or any part of any of the Projects without first obtaining the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that such sale or disposition will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 12. The officers of the Institution are authorized and directed to execute and deliver all certificates and instruments and to take all such further action as may be considered necessary or desirable in connection with the sale and issuance of the Bonds.

Section 13. The Board acknowledges that the Treasury Board will rely on the representations and covenants set forth herein in issuing the Bonds, that such covenants are critical to the security for the Bonds and the exclusion of the interest on the Bonds from the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes, that the Board will not repeal, revoke, rescind or amend any of such covenants without first obtaining the written approval of the Treasury Board, and that such covenants will be binding upon the Board so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding.

Section 14. This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption.

The undersigned Secretary of the Board of Visitors of The College of William and Mary in Virginia does hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Board of Visitors duly convened and held on September 23, 2016, at which a quorum was present and voting, and that such resolution is now in full force and effect.

Key Terms

9(c) Debt – Refers to bonds or other obligations authorized under the provisions of Article X, Section 9(c) of the Constitution of Virginia. Such debt is secured by (i) net project revenues and (ii) the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth (i.e., a general obligation pledge). Consequently, only revenue-producing capital projects are eligible (e.g., dormitories, dining facilities, etc.). Authorization for 9(c) bonds requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly. Further, prior to its authorization by the General Assembly, and again prior to its issuance, the Governor must certify that the anticipated net revenues of the project will be sufficient to pay principal and interest on the debt. The FFS is a critical part of this determination. 9(c) bonds are issued by the Treasury Board.

9(d) Debt – Refers to bonds or other obligations authorized for issuance under the provisions of Article X, Section 9(d) of the Constitution of Virginia. Such debt may or may not be secured by state funds. Project authorization must be provided in the Appropriation Act or other Act of the General Assembly. A financial feasibility study should be completed for any project expected to be supported in whole or in part from project revenues or general revenues of the agency or institution. This includes projects to be financed under the Virginia College Building Authority (VCBA) Pooled Bond Program. The project may or may not be revenue producing. Capital leases and other obligations are included in this category.

FFS's for 9(d) projects must be submitted to State Council of Higher Education for Virginia by August 15th of each year. The State Council of Higher Education shall identify the impact of all projects requested by the institutions of higher education on the current and projected costs to students in institutions of higher education and the impact of the project on the institution's need for student financial assistance. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall report such information to the Secretary of Finance and the Chairman of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees no later than October 1 of each year.

Capital Lease – Capital leases are considered long-term obligations for accounting purposes. The State Comptroller defines capital leases as leases which meet any one (or more) of the following criteria:

- 1) transfer of ownership of the property to the lessee at the end of the lease term;
- 2) bargain purchase option at the end of the lease term;
- 3) lease term equal to 75% or more of the estimated economic life of the leased property; and
- 4) present value of the net minimum lease payments equal to or exceeding 90% of the fair market value of the property.

Capitalized Interest – Interest to be paid on the bonds during the period of construction that is financed as part of the bond issue. Capitalizing interest increases the overall cost of borrowing, but may be necessary in cases where project revenues are to be used to pay debt service. Conversely, where revenues are already being collected (i.e., a fee or fee increase has already been implemented), capitalized interest may not be appropriate.

General Revenue Pledge – A pledge of all general operating revenues of the institution of higher education (as opposed to a pledge of a specific revenue or revenue stream). The general revenue pledge is generally stronger than a specific revenue pledge. A general revenue pledge is required for the VCBA Pooled Bond Program. General operating revenues include: total gross university sponsored overhead, unrestricted endowment income, tuition and fees, indirect cost recoveries, auxiliary enterprise revenues, general fund appropriations and other revenues not required by law to be used for another purpose.

Incremental Annual Operating Expenses – The increase in annual operating costs attributable to the project.

Non-recurring costs – One-time project costs (e.g., land acquisition, special utility fees, permits, etc.) required for project completion.

Private Use – means any use by a trade or business that is carried on by persons or entities other than state or local governmental entities. Such use could involve ownership, management, service or incentive payment contracts, research agreements, leases, subleases, loans, or any other arrangement that conveys special legal entitlements or economic benefit to the non-governmental entity from the beneficial use of the project.

Reserve Fund – An amount set aside, usually from project revenues or bond proceeds, to mitigate the impact of fluctuations or interruptions in the flow of revenues to pay debt service. The presence of a reserve fund may enhance the credit. For the purposes of the feasibility study, reserve funds are generally for debt service and are funded from project or institutional revenues. 9(c) projects are expected to generate sufficient net revenues to fund a reserve at an amount equal to approximately 10% of the amount financed.

Section 1 - General Information – To be completed for all projects.

1. Describe the project in sufficient detail so that an uninformed reader has a clear understanding of the project. Indicate whether the project involves new construction or is a renovation/addition to an existing facility.

Renovate: Humanities / Social Sciences Building

Supports the design, construction, and repurposing of the HSS Building (originally a hospital and configured well for repurposing to residential life) to enable a cost-effective and timely expansion of our residential facilities. The net usable area of HSS is 16,591 sq.ft., which will accommodate 80 to 100 additional students.

2. Describe how the project is essential to fulfilling the institution's/agency's mission. What alternatives are available?

Richard Bland College's Strategic Plan, RBC-19, calls for an enrollment of 2,000 students by 2019. Enrollment growth increased 8.29% in FY14, 15% in FY15, and 36% in FY 2016. Our brand recognition continues to gain strength in markets outside of our traditional three county territory. This can be seen by the increase of residential students who live outside of 30 miles. Last fall we had a waiting list of over 60 students, and currently, our waiting list is over 80 students (who will not be able to attend our College without housing). RBC needs to be able to meet the residential living needs of its growing student population.

3. Was the project part of the agency's capital outlay submission? If so, include a copy of the project narrative.

Yes. A copy of the project narrative is attached.

4. Describe the effect the project will have on those students or users who will financially support the project.

This project will make it possible for these additional out of area students to attend Richard Bland. Without housing, students from over 30 miles away will not find the college an attractive option.

5. Describe the probable effects of the project on the community and environment, including changes to the value of property as a result of the project.

With the completion of the new Social Science, Humanities, and English building in the fall of 2015, HSS will no longer be an E&G building. This historic structure will become dormant space unless repurposed. Using this space to meet the needs of our growing student population is an innovative approach to utilizing RBC's current assets to quickly address the urgent housing situation. With this building occupied for residential students, we will continue to have all assets fully utilized.

6. Explain how the project and its impact have been conveyed to local officials and their reaction/response.

Local officials are fully supportive of Richard Bland's commitment to educational excellence and, since the first dormitories opened on campus seven years ago, have recognized that the stability of the institution going forward is dependent upon its ability to attract and retain a significant resident population. In discussions with our local foundation board, our administration has found them to be excited about the project.

7. Describe any other positive or negative aspects of the project.

The project will allow RBC to pursue innovative approaches to residential education. Our current six-year plan includes the concept of beginning a new Work College model—the only one of its kind in Virginia—which would, in turn, help Richard Bland to continue its tradition of innovation.

8. Briefly describe the financing proposal. Indicate if this proposal is for a bond financing, a capital lease, or some alternative financing arrangement.

Bond funding.

9. Are specific revenues planned to support debt service or lease payments? (If so, you will need to complete Section 3.)

The facility will generate revenue from students paying the residential fee to stay in the dormitory. It will additionally produce revenue as it will increase the student population on campus, driving additional revenue in food service and in state aid based on increased FTE. Please see the pro forma, attached.

10. Describe how the financing fits within your debt management policy?

As our policy recommends cautious use of all funds, a project such as this, with a clearly self-supporting method of debt service, is clearly within our own guidelines.

11. Provide your institution's debt ratios as estimated under your debt management policy:
(a) as of June 30, 2016, including any authorized and unissued estimated debt; and
(b) including the financing of this project.

a) We currently service $1.185 million as debt service, which is approximately 7% of our operation budget—well within our guidelines.

b) This project, which totals only $2.65 million, will not change this percentage significantly: a twenty-year repayment would increase our debt service to 1.35 million, or 8% of our operating budget.

Private Use

12. Will any person or entity other than the governmental unit provide (directly or indirectly) any part of debt service on the portion of the bonds issued for the project? For example, will a private foundation or federal agency be required (or expected) to make an annual contribution toward the payment of debt service.

☐ Yes ☒ No. If yes, please identify the person or entity and the percent of debt service to be provided.

13. Do you anticipate that any person or entity other than the state institution/agency will have a contractual right, different from the rights available to the general public or students, to use any part of the project or to use or buy goods or services produced at the project? For instance, have you contracted parking spaces in a parking deck to a nearby corporate office?

☐ Yes ☒ No If yes, briefly summarize the planned contractual agreement.

14. Do you contemplate any part of the project being managed or operated by any person or entity other than the state institution/agency under a management or service contract, incentive payment or other "privatized" arrangement? Examples include contracts for food service, parking service, dormitory management, bookstore management, etc.

☐ Yes ☒ No If yes, summarize the anticipated contractual arrangement (i.e., contract term, renewal options, compensation arrangements, etc.).

Note: These arrangements may impact whether the project is eligible for tax-exempt financing. Once tax-exempt bonds have been issued, entering into this type of contract or arrangement may affect the bond's tax-exempt status. So long as the bonds are outstanding, the terms of any such arrangement must be reviewed and approved by the State Treasurer prior to the execution of any contract.

Section 2 – Cost Information (complete for all projects)

15. Do you anticipate the need for capitalized interest on any bond financing (i.e., to pay interest during construction)? If so, explain.

Yes. Project generated revenue will be used to pay debt service, no other revenue will be available to do so.

16. Itemize the capital costs of the project. Estimate the costs of issuance at 2% of the cost of the project. Please subtotal project costs net of the 2% cost of issuance and then show a gross cost of project including the cost of issuance. Note that the total cost should be used as the AMOUNT BORROWED field of the worksheet. Attach the CO-2 estimate or further estimate of project cost, if available. Feasibility Study Attached

17. What is the anticipated useful life of the project?

50 years

18. List and describe any initial Non-Recurring Costs related to the project and the source of funding for each of these items.

None.

19. List and estimate the Incremental Annual Operating Expenses. Provide any supporting documentation and illustrate how your estimate was made. These expenses include personnel costs, utilities, contractual services, supplies and materials, indirect costs, equipment, etc.

20 years	3.15%	3.15%

10 years	2.50%	2.65%
7 years	N/A	2.40%

Section 3 Revenue Information. (Complete for all revenue-producing projects)

20. Describe the Revenue Sources that will be used for payment of debt service and the expenses associated with these revenues. Consider what other expenses are planned to be supported by the revenues, and how much revenue will actually be available for debt service.

The repayment of debt service will be made from the revenues generated by the facility itself, as students will be paying the institution the housing fee for their dormitory spaces. The revenues generated by the facility are not earmarked for any other use at this time.

21. If revenues will be derived from a group of similar facilities (a system) and an increase in system revenues will be used to support the debt, provide justification for any system contribution and any marginal increase in system-wide fees.

The debt for this facility will be supported by its own revenues.

22. If revenues will be derived from just one facility of several similar facilities in a campus system, show all fees for all similar facilities and justify any differential in pricing between the facilities.

Not applicable.

23. Will project revenues or revenues pledged to the payment of debt service be available prior to completion of the project? Describe the timing of revenues and when they will be available and sufficient to begin servicing the debt.

No. Revenues will begin to be available after the project is occupied by students who are paying housing fees.

24. What studies have been completed to demonstrate the demand for the facility and the reliability of the revenue stream? (Attach copies if available.)

As mentioned above, we have been turning students away from housing and therefore from the College due to our inability to offer them housing. This trend has been on the upswing for the past two years, and given our 20% increase in freshmen this fall, promises to be even greater going forward. We have our waiting list of 80 this year even after adding 48 additional beds to our current facility.

25. If any portion of the revenues are already pledged or otherwise committed to other debt service payments, provide a schedule of debt service payments (by issue). Identify the portion of the revenue source that is committed or being used to pay debt

Not applicable.

26. If any revenues are projected to increase, explain how the projections were calculated. Do not use an automatic growth rate.

Not applicable.

27. If institutional reserves are to be used to service the debt, include the source of funds, balances for the last five years, and impact on future balances. Identify the authorization for using these funds to pay debt service and other costs.

Not applicable.

28. If any amounts currently used for debt service are expected to be available and used for debt service on this project (i.e., the existing debt will be retired), provide the project(s), the bond series, and the annual amount to be available. Address the status of the existing facility's physical condition and plans for repair or maintenance. Conversely, explain why any such amounts scheduled to be available are not planned for use for debt service on this project.

Not applicable.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE*2016-2022 SIX-YEAR PLAN UPDATE

WHEREAS, the mission of Richard Bland College is to prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of the College of William and Mary and to advance the Commonwealth's priorities through strategic partnerships, specialized programming, and scalable innovation; and

WHEREAS, the College's Six-Year Plan is rooted in the RBC-19 Strategic Plan and the goals set forth in the Governor's Enterprise Strategic Priorities for Building a New Virginia Economy, the Higher Education Opportunity Act (TJ21), and the SCHEV strategic plan; and

WHEREAS, it is important to the vitality of the Commonwealth and the diversity of its higher education system for the College to continue to provide a distinctive higher education option while ensuring that this education remains accessible and affordable to the citizens of the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the College has determined those expenditures necessary to support and enhance its instructional, research, student service, and administrative operations; prioritized those expenditures; and recommended funding through a combination of Commonwealth, College, and reallocated funds; and

WHEREAS, the College continues to evaluate opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its academic and administrative programs and activities, aware that fulfilling the goals of the Plan will require a combination of such efforts, in addition to adequate tuition revenue, state support and increased philanthropy;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary approves expenditures proposed in the College's updated Six-Year Plan and that the updated Six-Year Plan be prepared and submitted according to the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011 and subsequent guidance from the State Council of Higher Education.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The Board recognizes that on August 26, 2016, the Governor of Virginia, at a joint meeting of the House Appropriations, House Finance, and Senate Finance committees of the General Assembly, identified a general fund revenue shortfall of approximately $1.5 billion reflecting an FY 2016 shortfall in revenues and transfers of $278 million and reduced revenue projections in both years of the 2016-18 biennium. The immediate impact on the college is to eliminate support for the state's share of the FY 2017 proposed 3%, merit-based salary increase for faculty and staff. To date, institutions of higher education have not been asked to develop budget reduction plans. When and if such a request will come is unknown.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
SIX-YEAR PLAN (2016-18 through 2022)

Richard Bland College of William and Mary provides an outstanding education for Virginia students as the Commonwealth's only residential junior college, providing an extremely affordable and rigorous academic experience as students prepare to transfer to four-year institutions in pursuit of gainful employment and fulfilling lives. Going forward, we intend to maintain and enhance an extraordinary form of education, offered by no other institution in the Commonwealth and few others in the country. In developing our six-year plan, we build on existing strengths, preserving an exceptional public educational experience while contributing to the Commonwealth's educational and economic development needs.

INSTITUTIONAL MISSION

The Richard Bland College of William and Mary Mission Statement:

To prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of William and Mary and to expand access to college credentials through strategic partnerships, specialized programming, and scalable innovation.

The Richard Bland College of William and Mary Vision Statement:

As an extension of William and Mary, Richard Bland College is in the vanguard of learning-outcomes based liberal arts education for university transfer and a model for testing and applying outcomes-driven solutions in higher education.

Goals:

In fulfilling its mission, Richard Bland College of William and Mary adopts the following specific goals:

- to attract students with outstanding potential from diverse backgrounds;
- to prepare students to continue their education at a 4 year institution with an innovative and rigorous liberal arts and sciences curriculum that encourages creativity, independent thought, and intellectual depth, breadth, and curiosity;

- to use predictive analytics to proactively identify students at risk of failing and proactively intervene with comprehensive support services coordinated by a learner mentor support; and
- to instill in its students an appreciation for the human condition, a concern for the public well-being, and a life-long commitment to learning.

2016-2022 UPDATED STRATEGIES

Priority 1— ESE@RBC

Over the course of the last year and with agreement between the College and IBM-Portal, the College has ceased its partnership with the company and has brought in-house the development of a comprehensive student-centric engagement program that allows dedicated learner mentors (LMs), faculty and other highly involved staff to intervene intelligently at every stage in the student's educational journey. Supported by key systems (e.g., CANVAS, Drop-out Detective, Banner) as well as internally developed predictive analytics, the ultimate goal of the program is to operate in an efficient, data-driven environment that allows everyone involved to react in a proactive manner to keep the student on track from the crucially important first semester through graduation. To ensure the success of this now internal project, we have hired a highly qualified Chief Innovation, Strategy, and Information Technology Officer (CISIO) to build the links and strategies between all sections of the campus that impact this initiative.

The first semester of a student's educational journey is the most critical and it is vital that students begin on the right track. Guidance practitioners are new positions at the College that analyze placement test scores, as well as student interest and plans, to get students placed into pre-set schedules that are designed for success. Increasing enrollment in will require additional investment in the guidance practitioner positions. We had significant success with our pilot year, and have now hired four additional learner mentors and extended the programming to our sophomore students to ensure an end to end support process in transitioning them to their next school.

Priority 2—Mission Aligned Academic Portfolio

Through market/gap analysis and strategic partnerships, the College will expand its academic portfolio. Planned areas of growth are in online delivery, market-driven curricula and applied degree clusters (stackable credentials). Each strategic partner will lend resources and expertise to the development of a new set of academic program offerings. The vast majority of jobs are in small businesses, so the College seeks to drive entrepreneurship and economic development through the creation of a robust cluster of curricula in the following areas

The College will develop an e-Portfolio program to help students track their progress and development as learners. As one of three Virginia colleges approved by the United States Department of Education as an “experimental site” for prior-learning assessment and competency based education (CBE), the College will test portfolio-based assessment to accelerate the time to degree for students with certain competencies coming into the program and to reduce the redundancy that is built into the developmental education program.

1. Work-Learning-Service (WLS) College Initiative: RBC will investigate joining the Work College Consortium and beginning a pilot program for local, middle-income students. Work Colleges offer students enhanced learning opportunities by integrating Work, Learning and Service throughout their college experience. Students earn a valuable degree plus important life and professional skills.

The Work Colleges approach helps to develop advanced skills and key attributes like critical thinking, problem solving, teamwork, decision-making, leadership, professionalism and a quest for lifelong learning. Graduates go on to be effective and responsible leaders in business, community and government. They're thoughtful and smart—graduating with considerably less college debt than most of their peers. Member Colleges help students graduate with limited debt.

2. Behavioral Science and Information Technology (Cyber Security, Computer Modeling, Simulation and Gaming) – Building on a special appropriation from the Commonwealth in 2014, these programs will focus on the technical side of design, allowing students to halt or prevent cyber-attacks.

3. Environmental Science

4. Bio-Science

All of these programs will provide students with marketable skills in niche industries and economies. The core competencies of entrepreneurship will allow for a common curriculum and programs of study that will provide students with the hands-on experience and stackable credentials necessary to secure gainful employment. The Academic Innovation and Resource Center will provide the workspace needed for meaningful and productive collaboration between curriculum designers and strategic partners, and it will serve as an innovation center to drive continuous improvement in learning outcomes.

Priority 3—Business Intelligence and Process Alignment

The College remains focused on its key strategic planning goals of 1) developing and implementing financial and sustainability master plans; 2) collecting, analyzing, disseminating, and utilizing pertinent performance-related information to drive quality and continuous improvements; 3) developing and implementing revenue enhancement plans; and 4) deploying financial, physical, IT and human resources in direct support of the mission and vision.

The College has consistently reduced its overhead costs over the past several years with Institution and OandM costs reduced from 57% FY 12 to 38% FY15 and leveling out at 41% for FY16. Even as we reach a state of equilibrium for institutional and OandM spend, the College continues to focus on spans of controls, automating processes, and IT virtualization.

The College continues to drive auxiliary revenue through multiple uses of its campus facilities, with a focus on partnering with the surrounding community to more broadly advance the education mission. Richard Bland College hosted Jacob's Ladder this summer, a month long overnight program for over 60 high performing youth aged 10 through 14 from economically challenged backgrounds. They were very impressed with our campus facilities and support programming and will be returning next summer. Tapping opportunities for increased brand awareness and also to raise auxiliary revenues through campus utilization by external entities and partners is a priority. This summer we hosted multiple campus events including a Music in the Grove series, weddings, company picnics, a boy scout day camp, and catering events.

Summer use of residence halls that opened in 2008 remains a largely untapped opportunity, but we did host Jacob's Ladder during their stay and another retreat program over a long weekend. The College also sees opportunities for new Equine Center programs to grow exponentially as RBC remains one of only two institutions nationwide with EAGALA-certified programs. In addition, utilizing residence halls in the summer to provide housing for summer school students (at reduced costs) to enable on-time degree completion is planned. We ran a pilot program this summer with one of RBC's athletic programs to see how it would work. They assisted with the Jacob's Ladder camp and attended some classes, and overall was a successful pilot.

IT focus will be on improving the reliability and consistency of infrastructure, improved continuity of operations, document management (digitize, store, retrieve transcripts, etc), and automating and simplifying critical IT processes. The College will continue to move infrastructure to cloud-based solutions as makes sense and improve IT security functions.

KEY CAPITAL PROJECTS (2016-2022)

In April 2015, the Board of Visitors approved a six-year capital plan. Key capital projects include:

- Maintenance Reserve and Umbrella Maintenance Projects
Provides continued funding of major repair and replacement projects in facilities across campus including roof repairs and building systems repairs.
- Renovate: Library Expansion
An expanded concept of the library as a modern tool for fostering innovation in scholarship while also providing renewed space for study and collaboration, calls for a re-design of our existing structure and mission. Our Center for Teaching and Learning will provide a unique cultural center that inspires, supports, and contextualizes our users' engagement with scholarship. A flexible, equipped space will inspire connected learning for a networked world through faculty development, student engagement, communities of practice, and technology enhanced active learning. A renewed building filled with natural light, innovative media and displays of artwork and views of campus will engage imaginations and inspire conversation and reflection. This plan calls for approximately 10,000 sq. ft. of library resources, 7,000 sq. ft. of Information Technology Services and data center and 7,000 sq. ft. for Academic Innovation and training. A new elevator will be necessary to access this change in space design. We were approved by the general assembly to proceed with planning for this project for the 2016-18 biennium. In addition, we have started renovations inside the current library space to create a student support center in which is housed the learner mentors, admission, counseling, etc.
- Renovate: Humanities / Social Sciences Building
Supports the design, construction, and repurposing the HSS Building (which was originally a hospital and is configured well for repurposing to residential life) will enable a cost effective and timely expansion of our residential life facilities. The net usable area of HSS is 16,591 square feet which will allow for an additional 80 to 100 residential beds. The general assembly approved construction of this project with the sale of 9c bonds. Construction has begun as of July 1, 2016 and is anticipated to be complete for fall 2017 student occupancy.

ADMINISTRATIVE UPDATE

Enrollment

J. Tyler Hart, Dean of Enrollment Services

Headcount and Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) both increased in the fall of 2016 largely due to increases in fall-to-fall retention and Dual Enrollment (DE counts estimated as of September 2, 2015). (See Figure 1.)

Figure 1
10-Year Enrollment Summary

While fall 2015-to-spring 2016 and fall 2015-to-fall 2016 retention increased (Figure 2), and the College realized a 13.42% increase in applications for fall 2016, we failed to admit the target number of students and experienced a melt rate of 20% (up from an estimated 6% in fall 2015). (See Figure 3.) The increase in melt may have been partially attributable to customer service issues associated with a required Financial Aid upgrade. These system-related issues have been addressed, and Phase II of ESE@RBC features a Student Success Center that serves as a one-stop shop for students seeking support services.

Freshman Profile – Fall 2016

Statesman Scholars (Honor Students) Entering Fall Cohorts 2012 – 2016

Since reinvigorating the athletic program in 2013, the number of freshman athletes has decreased with increased retention of sophomore students. The total number of athletes on campus has remained relatively constant over the past 4 years (~90). (See Figure 5.)

Athlete vs. Non-Athlete

Maintaining a diverse student population remains a priority goal of RBC-19 and the Strategic Enrollment Management Plan. 60 percent of the fall 2016 entering cohort self-identified as minority. (See Figure 6.)

Ethnicity
Entering Fall Cohorts 2012 – 2016

In the fall of 2014, with the implementation of the SEM Plan, the College began to re-shape the residential population by recruiting students from outside of the local region, anticipating that students within the three-city/three-county region would have the opportunity to commute. (See Figure 7.) Strategically targeting NOVA and Tidewater populations while re-building relationships with key feeder schools has been critical to the increase in total student population. The residence halls remain a critical aspect of the SEM Plan and, even with the addition of 80 beds in the fall of 2017, we plan to continue to fill 95% of available beds with students from outside a 30-mile radius. A complete dashboard with the freshman profile is attached to this report.

Conclusion

The fall of 2016 brought a degree of ‘normalizing’ from the 40% increase in fall 2015 total headcount and 20% increase in the fall 2016 cohort, RBC remains on track to achieve the goal of 2,500 headcount and 1,500 FTE by 2019. Dual Enrolled students account for the largest population increase, and because of the quality of these students and the opportunity to convert them to full-time enrollments, growing this population remains a priority. The Honors population saw a significant decrease in the fall 2016 cohort, but an increase in total population, because of the successful retention of a large cohort in 2015. With increased investment in Honors programming, this population also remains a top priority, with a goal of 200 Honor students by fall 2017.

ADMINISTRATIVE UPDATE

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Penny Howard, Dean of Finance and Administration

Overview

The Finance and Administration unit of Richard Bland College consists of the following units: general accounting, procurement, accounts payable, accounts receivable, cashiering, budgeting and financial reporting, financial aid, and human resources.

The unit in its entirety has undergone significant restructuring in the last 12 months. This includes staff turnover in all key positions, redistribution of duties and responsibilities, the implementation of a newly structured finance and financial aid system, frequent audits and reviews of ongoing process changes, building and implementation of new and revised standard operating procedures, policies and procedures, and the growing pains that come from turning a disparate set of individuals into a cohesive team.

As of this report, we are well on our way to functioning as a strong unit, led by a knowledgeable and driven management team. We have an ambitious operational plan for FY 2017, focused on the improvement of customer service, access to reliable data for operational decision making, construction and documentation of reliable and repeatable processes, and relationship building with other campus partner units to ensure that we are all delivering on the promise of 100% student success.

Finance

In the last 12 months the finance unit has been completely restructured with a 70% turnover in the original staff and the addition of a key budget/financial reporting position for the unit. In that same time period, we determined that the then current financial system was incorrectly built and needed to be overhauled to be useful in any meaningful way. We also discovered that the financial aid module was woefully out of date, and needed to be overhauled as well.

From the period of January to June 2016, Finance and Administration also assumed responsibility for information technology services and hired two Banner (enterprise system) experts into the college to lead the upgrade of both the finance and financial aid modules for a go-live date of July 1, 2016. With this behemoth task to tackle, we were also part of the Commonwealth's mandated implementation of a brand new financial system, with their go-live date of February 1, 2016. Thanks to the very dedicated finance and IT staff, we were able to meet all of the state's deadlines and go live with the state on time.

Thanks to the newly hired financial and IT Banner staff, we also made our very ambitious go-live date of July 1 for our own system with very little error. From that point to now, we have been building the processes around our new system, integrating the data interface with the state system, and revising our business workflows to create effective processes and to ensure that the right information gets to the right person at the right time. It is still a work in progress, but we have made significant strides and we're now gaining momentum.

We have also had ongoing audits of our status in restructuring and revitalizing this department and its systems since last September. Although progress was slow in the beginning, it has picked up momentum since April, as we got the last individuals hired and are now on track to meet operational goal dates for FY 2017. We are meeting our target dates for financial statement data for the FY 2016 consolidated statements with William and Mary and the state, and we have also just finalized the Foundation audit for FY 2016, an additional responsibility. Processes for collecting and reporting data continue to improve, and we are capturing our standard operating procedures for each financial activity to ensure that they are all documented by the end of the 2016 calendar year.

Financial Aid

Due to unanticipated turnover, Financial Aid came into FY 2016 with only one fairly new staff member in place. In November, we hired a new Financial Aid Director with 20 plus years of experience, and shortly thereafter, a front office staff member was hired.

This unit experienced perhaps the most painful revitalization due to the loss of most of the department's institutional knowledge. In addition, with a minimally functional Financial Aid system, the new director and her staff had to do most tasks manually and then add the data into the system instead of being able to rely on the full capability of the system in place.

A decision made by a former administrator in the prior fiscal year to move the first tuition due date from the normal August deadline to late October resulted in many students and parents not addressing their questions about financial aid until well past the federal due dates for the semester. This left the office in the position of being unable to help students obtain some of the financial aid for which they would have been eligible had they applied in a timely manner. This issue was exacerbated by the spring semester applications and subsequent fall semester applications all coming in at the same time that the office was cleaning up issues from the prior fall.

As was noted in the Finance section, these problems were compounded by an improperly applied system patch applied by an external vendor, something that was not identified until we brought the IT Banner database expert in house in April.

If not for the extraordinary dedication of our new Financial Aid director, who put in significant hours and effort over the last 8 months, we would not be where we are today. During the course of the spring semester, she successfully found ways to assist most students with eligible fall balances to obtain financial aid funds to help pay their balances. She also worked with the spring, summer, and fall 2016 applicants (fall 2016 had over 2500 FAFSA applications to manually process) to ensure that they were helped while dealing with a system that was broken. She led the successful launch of a revitalized financial aid system on July 1, working closely with IT and our financial aid back office vendor since then to use the full functionality of the system by importing FAFSAs from the federal government system, auto-packaging student awards, and building out the student-facing pages that let them see and accept their financial aid awards. In the last three weeks of August 2016, the office saw over 950 students in their offices, while dealing with as many phone calls and emails in the same time frame. By the end of August, the office had successfully processed all current student financial aid and was continuing to work with those students who had outstanding financial aid issues.

It has not been a smooth process, but an extraordinary one given the time frame in which the turn-around was accomplished. We identified a couple of internal department issues to address, and also discovered some issues outside of the control of the financial aid office to address, as well to ensure that we provide the best and most accurate information to our incoming students. The President has formed a Task Force on Financial Aid to address outstanding issues, and work has begun. As the federal government has moved the opening date to file the FAFSA from January to October, we continue to adjust our processes accordingly. We are currently updating the financial aid webpage to accurately reflect all the information a student and their parents need to successfully and timely apply for financial aid for the following academic year.

Human Resources

A new HR director with over 10 years of experience in Virginia higher education joined the College on August 25, 2016. In FY 2016, we added 1.5 staff to the department for a total of 3.5.

Pieces of compliance were moved out of HR and reassigned to other areas that were a better fit. EEOC remains with HR, but Title IX coordination now resides with the Assistant Dean of Academic Support, which legal counsel deemed to be more appropriate. The College Attorney and Chief of Police assist with investigations, as appropriate.

The new HR Director has hit the ground running, starting with reorganizing the unit into a primarily specialist-driven functionality with generalist duties as needed. She is reviewing policies and procedures, communication processes, onboarding and off boarding, data collection and tracking, and hiring practices to identify gaps and build solutions.

A project to upgrade onboarding processes for incoming employees was launched in June and the HR team has been using it and modifying it based on feedback from new employees. We are also investigating which technical solution is the best fit for RBC as HR relies solely on internal spreadsheets to track and document HR data.

As has been mentioned throughout this document, there are a number of goals in each area that we will strive to accomplish in fiscal year 2017 to support RBC-19 and 100% student success. We will measure ourselves against these goals and report out on our progress. It is an ambitious and aspirational operational plan, but one I believe will be instrumental in improving customer service, strategically leveraging data, providing student support opportunities, and creating sustainability and growth of RBC. Specifically this year we will build out our web resources and presence to ensure that potential and current students and families have the information they need at their fingertips; rebuild and document our policies and operating procedures along with all relevant forms and educational material to educate our staff and faculty for all financial and human resource workflows; build reports and dashboards with our financial and human resource data to improve operational decision making; and explore innovative ways to assist our students with paying for college as well as determine creative ways to build and manage additional revenue streams for the college. We are looking forward to building something amazing!

CAPITAL

Eric Kondzielawa, Director of Capital Assets & Operations

New Field House - The final umbrella project in this cycle—construction of a new 4,500 square feet athletic facility—is well underway. This project has received all BCOM approvals, and the project has been bid out and awarded to Haley Builders. This brick and anodized metal panels structure will mirror the exterior finishes of the McNeer and SSHE buildings. The structure will be used as an indoor practice facility for all athletic programs, as well as the general student population, both commuters and residential.

Commerce Hall / HSS Renovation - Renovation of the HSS building, which recently became vacant with the re-opening of the Social Science, Humanities and English (SSHE) building, will add 78 beds, along with new restrooms, new HVAC and fire protection systems, and state-of-the-art common area space for student collaboration. When the facility opens in the fall of 2017, it will bring total beds to nearly 500, nearly double the number of beds available when residence halls opened in 2008. Due to the building's original design and utilization as a hospital, the conversion to a student residential facility will be relatively simple and very efficient. We expect to receive $2,650,000 from DPB through 9C bond funding. The preliminary BCOM submission is complete, and we are ready to submit Working Drawings. Similar to The SHEE building, we will undertake hazardous material abatement and demolition as discreet projects at the front-end in order to expedite the actual time of construction and save money on any GC mark-up. Completion is scheduled for August 2017

Academic Innovation Center - In accordance with the Facilities Master Plan, 34,000 square feet of new and renovated space in the current Library building will function to advance priority goals, including increased retention, graduation, and transfer. The space will be designed to support academic innovation in online learning, curriculum design, OER-enhanced content, as well as VLN (Virginia Learning Network) and ESE (Exceptional Student Experience). This $23.6 million project's primary focus is on academic innovation, expanded access to college credentials, and curricular excellence; it involves 24,000 square feet of new construction and 10,000 square feet of renovated space. We have received pre-planning funds from DPB and are currently working on schematic drawings.

Library Renovation - In July of 2016 we started Phase 1 of a three-phased project to improve the library, as well as the cafeteria/dining area to improve the flow and add much needed capacity once the new residence halls open in the fall of 2017. This is the first step in moving to a one-stop shop for student support services. Space inside the 1st floor of the library was developed to house learner mentors to enable better interaction with the students and to enhance the Exceptional Student Experience (ESE@RBC). The second phase would involve replacing the remainder of the furniture and adding much needed computer stations and data drops to compensate for our ever-growing student population. A major renovation to the Kitchen and Cafeteria is planned for Phase Three. To better serve students and other diners, this phase will bring all new kitchen equipment, including a dish wash station, and kiosks to provide better, healthier and more diverse meal options.

Safety and Security Enhancements

- In August of 2016 all antiquated access controls in both Patriot and Freedom residence halls were converted from the old Continental Access to more updated RS-2 systems.
- A pilot/ sample program was introduced by converting to stronger locking system strikes, and additional hardware was added to better secure individual apartments.
- Purchase orders have been issued to replace the outdated analog camera system throughout the Residence Halls with an improved IP-based system that features better viewing angles and more pixels for better vision.
- In July, the rear bank of Statesman Hall doors were replaced in the interest of student safety and security. We also upgraded access controls, and we are currently looking into providing security cameras throughout.

ACADEMICS

Dr. Vern Lindquist, Dean of Faculty & Chief Academic Officer

With the Fall semester and the new academic year in full swing, I am pleased to report that we are beginning our activities this September with five new full-time faculty. Though their backgrounds vary, they share an excellent preparation for undergraduate education and general scholarship.

Troy Bupp, Associate Professor of Mathematics

Professor Bupp is a retired Army officer who was previously an instructor for the Army's Operations Research/Systems Analysis—Military Application Course at the Army Logistics University, Ft. Lee, VA. He also served as an Assistant Professor and a Head Academic Counselor within the Department of Mathematics at the United States Military Academy in West Point, NY. He holds his master's degree in Computational Operations Research from the College of William & Mary.

Dr. Eric Earnhardt, Assistant Professor of English

Dr. Earnhardt completed his doctorate in Anglo-American literature at Case Western Reserve University. He has taught courses in creative writing, literature, technical and professional communication, rhetoric, and English as a second language. His doctoral research focused on metaphor, anthropomorphism, and cognition in literature and science from Darwin to Modernism.

Dr. Daniel Franke, Assistant Professor of History

Dr. Franke completed his doctorate at the University of Rochester and taught at the United States Military Academy and SUNY New Paltz before coming to RBC. His main interests are the medieval history of Europe and global military history, with an emphasis on the medieval crusades and revolutions in warfare.

Dr. David Morgan, Associate Professor of Physics and Mathematics

Dr. Morgan is an alumni of the College of William and Mary, where he completed his masters and doctoral degrees. His doctoral dissertation focused on high energy particle theory, and he has over 10 years of collegiate teaching experience and further STEM experience at the high school level.

Dr. Vanessa Stout, Assistant Professor of Sociology

Dr. Vanessa Stout received her doctorate at Trinity College Dublin, Ireland, while lecturing there before coming to RBC. She has lectured, published, and does community work on a range of topics including race, urban space, migration, and immigration.

Dr. Adam Zucconi, Assistant Professor of History

Dr. Zucconi completed his doctoral degree at West Virginia University instructing both there and at Clemson University before joining RBC as an adjunct professor. He was awarded the Andrew Mellon Fellowship by the Virginia Historical Society in 2014 and his area of special interest is the U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction era.

We will focus this fall on promoting the online AS in business degree and the equine therapy certificate as well as expanding equine activities to include courses in horseback riding and non-credit programming in equine-assisted activities for business and industry groups. In addition, with the addition to our full-time staff (on a temporary basis for now) of a music faculty member, we will explore additional courses and programming, both credit- and non-credit, in music performance. This new faculty member, Celia Brockway, has already organized a pep band on campus for basketball games and will be beginning a chorus class in our late-start semester, reviving the performing arts on campus.

To allow us to offer a greater percentage of programming at some of our dual-enrollment sites, I will be preparing a substantive change document for SACSCOC in a few weeks. This will be asking for SACSCOC to sanction over 50% of the degree to be offered at off-campus sites.

The focus of last spring and summer's work was the preparation for and writing of our SACSCOC Monitoring Report, which details our progress towards compliance with the Assessment of Learning Outcomes (Standard 3.3.1.1). In this, the faculty have made significant progress, as evidenced in the report itself. We have a comprehensive academic assessment plan, measurable outcomes for each course which themselves map to our common programmatic learning outcomes, and data which demonstrates that we assess our progress towards meeting these outcomes and make curricular and other changes to improve student performance in these outcomes.

SACS Monitoring Report

CS 3.3.1.1

The institution should provide evidence that it identifies expected learning outcomes to include student learning outcomes, assesses the extent to which it achieves these outcomes, and uses the results to make improvements based upon analysis of assessment for each of its academic programs. If sampling is used, the institution should provide a representative sample that reflects its mission and the full array of educational programs offered, at all degree levels.

History

This monitoring report is in response to the request made by the SACSCOC Board of Trustees on 19 January 2016 referencing Richard Bland College's Referral Report from the submission of our Fifth-Year Interim Report in December, 2014. In our Referral Report, we were responding to this statement by the Board:

The institution should provide evidence that it identifies expected learning outcomes to include student learning outcomes, assesses the extent to which it achieves these outcomes, and uses the results to make improvements based upon analysis of assessment for each of its academic programs. If sampling is used, the institution should provide a representative sample that reflects its mission and the full array of educational programs offered, at all degree levels.

We responded in the subsequent Referral Report that, though Richard Bland College had previously provided evidence that it had a draft of a comprehensive academic assessment plan, including syllabi from courses with identified measurable student learning outcomes and the rubric to be used for assessing those outcomes, we were too early along in this process to demonstrate fully that we engaged in institutional effectiveness within its academic programs: we were unable to provide at that time data to show we were implementing the plan and were using the results of the assessment plan to improve outcomes for our students. We ourselves noted, that "some important steps remain in our efforts to demonstrate more thorough compliance: we must re-assess all learning outcome areas so that we can show that the curricular changes resulting from our first round of assessments have had positive benefits for our students."

The response to that Referral Report, received by us in January of this year, noted our progress in demonstrating compliance in this area, but recognized, as we did, that we needed more time to fully implement our assessment plan (which we include as an attachment). We have used our time wisely and have come a long way in the year since writing our Referral Report.

Current Request of the Commission

The institution has finalized a comprehensive academic assessment plan with identified student learning outcomes and is beginning to assess and collect data in the areas of math and English. Faculty members have also started analyzing the data and formulating plans of action to bring about change. The institution, by its own account, needs more time to demonstrate compliance.

Response

Richard Bland College is unique in Virginia (and perhaps in the two-year system generally) in that it only offers general liberal arts transfer degrees (AA and AS). This is in line with our college's mission, which is "To prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of William & Mary...." The degrees we offer (the general liberal arts AA, and the various liberal arts AS degrees: business, behavioral science, math, and physical/life/clinical lab science) are really interest tracks for marketing purposes rather than stand-alone programs with unique experiences and expected outcomes. In fact, when we were approved by the State Council for Higher Education in Virginia to offer these tracks as degrees, we made it clear at that time that we were merely reclassifying what had been longstanding advising tracks into these degrees for ease of marketing and advising.

Therefore, in consonance with our institutional mission, all of RBC's programs share the same expected Programmatic Outcomes, which at RBC we call "Curriculum Goals". They are listed in our current college catalog (www.rbc.edu/my-rbc/college-catalog/section-vii-academics/):

The following college-wide curriculum goals have been adopted. Upon graduation from Richard Bland College, the student will have acquired:

- The ability to analyze and critique information through accurate reading, listening, and logical thinking, and the ability to acquire, organize, document, and present written and oral information clearly, precisely, and correctly
- The ability to acquire, process, understand, and use quantitative data
- An understanding of how major historical factors and events have influenced the development of civilization
- An understanding of major natural laws and theories that govern our universe and the ability to apply the scientific method to the acquisition of knowledge and problem-solving
- An understanding of major social forces that have shaped and continue to shape contemporary society
- An understanding of the human experience as revealed through creative expressions from the humanities
- An understanding of the components of a healthful lifestyle, including the benefits of physical fitness (Slated to be deleted from the list)

To assess these programmatic outcomes, Richard Bland College maps the aggregate success in the measurable learning outcomes from specific courses into the outcomes above. We believe this allows us to use as many pieces of evidence as possible, in line with Michael Middaugh's stricture in Planning and Assessment in Higher Education: "A comprehensive assessment of cognitive gains among students at a college or university requires multiple measures and multiple pieces of evidence" (90). We map the student learning outcomes from the course-level assessments as follows (from our Academic Assessment Plan, attached in the thumb drive):

- The ability to analyze and critique information through accurate reading, listening, and logical thinking, and the ability to acquire, organize, document, and present written and oral information clearly, precisely, and correctly (English, speech, philosophy and literature courses—Goal 1)
- The ability to acquire, process, understand, and use quantitative data (mathematics, business and computer science courses—Goal 2)
- An understanding of how major historical factors and events have influenced the development of civilization (history courses—Goal 3)
- An understanding of major natural laws and theories that govern our universe and the ability to apply the scientific method to the acquisition of knowledge and problem-solving (science courses, including biology, chemistry, physics, and anatomy—Goal 4)
- An understanding of major social forces that have shaped and continue to shape contemporary society (sociology, geography, religion, philosophy and psychology courses—Goal 5)
- An understanding of the human experience as revealed through creative expressions from the humanities (courses in art and music—Goal 6)

After our most recent round of data collection in the Spring 2016 semester (without Goal 3, which comes up this fall), our current snapshot of our success in achieving our goals for these learning outcomes is as follows:

As our Assessment Plan mandates, faculty are currently reviewing the data (both this first snapshot of the dashboard of programmatic outcomes and the department-level data). Not only will faculty review the data in terms of how well students are learning at the program level; they will also be checking the alignment of the program learning outcomes themselves: As Mary J. Allen explains:

Alignment is a key assessment concept. A cohesive curriculum is aligned with program learning objectives—it is designed to systematically introduce and develop student mastery of program objectives. Courses are designed for this cohesive curriculum by aligning course objectives with program objectives. (Assessing Academic Programs in Higher Education, 154-56).

The process outlined in our plan is:

Faculty will review these data yearly (generally, in the fall semesters) and consider programmatic and curricular changes for each programmatic goal driven by the data. Our preliminary default benchmark is 70% success in each programmatic area. The process for that review is as follows:

- As indicated on the reporting form template on the following pages, individual faculty members will review their own course data and document changes they will make to their courses as a result.

- Data from each area will be aggregated and distributed to academic departments, who will discuss the overall results and recommend department-level curricular actions.
- The Curriculum/Instructional Programs committee will review the annual snapshot of the dashboard of our performance on all of the programmatic outcomes and recommend actions to be taken by departments or the institution itself.
- The Academic Standards committee will review the annual snapshot of the dashboard of our performance on all programmatic outcomes and recommend changes to the assessment standards and/or methodology of the assessment plan.

In this way, the assessment plan ensures that both course-level and programmatic outcomes are regularly assessed and that the results of those assessments will themselves be used to drive changes in curriculum, delivery, or institutional support—and that the system itself will be recursive. (Assessment Plan, 4)

All courses at Richard Bland College have identified measurable student learning outcomes, and we have gone through two of the three years of assessment mapped out in our plan—we are on schedule and on track. Samples of the most recent assessment results for each programmatic area appear the print appendix (with the exception of history, which is not scheduled for assessment until this Fall) and the complete assessment results are on the thumb drive.

In addition, in the programmatic areas of mathematics and English, the results of prior assessments were the fuel for curricular and programmatic changes which have themselves been assessed and are showing early promise. In English, faculty are working on a pilot project for teaching developmental English (the “ALP” model—accelerated learning program, based on a co-requisite strategy) to address some of the structural weaknesses of our English program brought to light by the first round of assessment data and the ensuing discussions. The evaluation of the effectiveness of the first pilot semesters has just been completed, and is also included in the appendix. In short, students are more successful in the one-semester ALP pilot than in the two-semester, which means that students’ progress towards graduation has been significantly improved at no additional cost to them. Future rounds of assessment will test whether or not the programmatic outcomes are also positively affected by our having addressed the structural issues in English (which seems likely, as indicated by our 10% greater success rate in ENGL 101).

In mathematics, the data and the discussions engendered by the analysis of that data have caused the college to begin a pilot program (which has just completed) to help students get past developmental mathematics and into credit-bearing courses more quickly. The program is fueled by technology—ALEKS is the name of the tool—and it appears not only to help students through mathematics more quickly than standard courses, it also allows faculty to have an incredibly detailed analysis of each student's areas of weakness so that they can be addressed individually. The summer program will definitely continue next year, and faculty will also be using the tool in the regular semester, comparing its results to the results of standard sections. If the results are as we suspect they will be, it will completely redefine how mathematics is taught here at Richard Bland College. A screenshot of what instructors using ALEKS can see about their students' learning is included in the appendix. As with English, the plan is to reassess to ensure that the changes not only move students to degree more quickly, but also positively affect their performance in the programmatic outcome.

As we predicted in our Referral Report, we now have continuous improvement hard-wired into our processes, and are now beginning to demonstrate excellence in the area of the assessment of learning outcomes. We anticipate being able to report even more actions when we prepare our self-study document next year.

ADMINISTRATIVE UPDATE

INFORMATION & TECHNICAL SERVICES

Kenneth O. LaTessa, Ph.D., Chief Information, Strategy & Innovation Officer

Upon arrival on June 13, 2016, I undertook an in-depth analysis into technical processes, procedures, systems and personnel. From that analysis the following was readily determined:

1. The internal infrastructure and backbone across campus was competently planned, is very stable and well-maintained. Major improvements in security auditing and processes had been recently initiated and were having a positive effect.
2. Poorly defined business processes were supported by technologies that could not (and likely never would) achieve any level of efficiency. A lack of technical governance and strategy created a topography of systems that were disconnected, lacked functional purpose and were generating manual task workloads that are not sustainable nor scalable.
3. Disconnected systems were the cause of manually intensive, difficult to reproduce reporting processes; key data points were not readily available. A number of primary systems were not being maintained and had thus become antiquated or were experiencing failure requiring regular manual intervention.
4. Technical staff, though qualified and good intentioned, lacked leadership and focus. Additionally, no good engagement processes existed for the control and queuing of requested technical work (or campus-wide work for that matter). They had positive attitudes, a belief in the mission and a great depth of campus domain knowledge. Gaps in needed skill sets existed and there was no plan for ongoing professional development.
5. A number of important initiatives had been started, advanced to a point and then stalled.

With the initial research complete, a strategic 90-day plan was drafted and put into motion with the primary objective of creating a level of stability. The plan was divided into five (5) key areas: infrastructure, institutional research, process improvement, systems & software and technical resources. The plan is in process and will effectively run between July 1 and September 30, 2016. On October 3, the initial plan will be replaced with a complete operational plan, currently being drafted, for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The following is a summary glance of the key initiatives in that 90-plan and the current status:

- A. Access to the secure RBC wireless network added to the residence halls to streamline business processes and support the Office of Residence Life staff. 100% complete
- B. Systems and software supporting the access controls in the residence halls upgraded to supported versions to provide more stability and a pathway for ongoing, preventative maintenance and to put all access functionality under one centralized system. 100% complete
- C. Camera systems in the residence halls upgraded to improve the level of security, provide more stability and support ongoing maintenance and to centralize the management across campus under a single system. 60% complete
- D. A proprietary predictive model created to replace the one initially developed by Portal. As a stop-gap solution, a report generated and provided to Learner Mentors on a scheduled basis to support interventions and their work as advisors. 100% complete

- E. Implementation plan for the installation of the Copley Retention System as the long term solution to support Learner Mentor activities as well as campus wide engagement with students. Plan 100% complete; implementation by Spring 2017; full roll-out in Fall 2017
- F. Analysis and mapping of the onboarding/off-boarding process for all faculty & staff to determine gaps in process and supporting technical systems. 100% complete
- G. Implementation of housing system to support the business processes of residence life. Go-live date is 2/1/2017. 25% complete
- H. Implementation of print management to reduce consumable and internal costs associated with the large usage of print/copier technology on campus. Go live date is Spring 2017. 50% complete
- I. Implementation of a centralized service request system to support the workload queue of Information & Technology Services, Facilities, Residence Life, Auxiliary Services and Communications. 85% complete
- J. Implementation of strategic planning software to support ongoing monitoring and management of RBC-19 and all internal operational plans and projects. 90% complete
- K. Preliminary creation of a centralized data warehouse that consolidates key informational data to support the admission funnel and student onboarding process through synchronization and business intelligence. 75% complete
- L. Replacement of the online college application with a more robust, maintainable solution that allows for better management of the admissions funnel and to support additional business intelligence in the process. Slated to start 9/15
- M. Document management and intranet development initiative to support improved business process flow, student records retention and centralized information. This project has actually now been divided into 2 specific initiatives: student records and intranet/document management because of the large scope. Student records is in progress with a Spring 2017 implementation date; 15% complete. Intranet will not start until Spring.
- N. Technical resource acquisition in project management and business process analysis (hired), technical support (hired), development (search underway) and infrastructure/systems support (not started).

Time has been spent focusing staff on initiatives and processes that matter, centralizing responsibility in appropriate roles, and setting expectations around accountability and what customer service should mean. Additionally, technical employees are being mentored to think strategically about their workloads and to understand how wasted time or efforts can impact the entire ecosystem. Processes for key functional areas to request technical resources and/or systems now exist; these allow for oversight so that higher-level decisions about the long term impact of systems can be considered. From my perspective, we are moving very quickly in the correct direction.

- Appointment of new emergency management team (EMT) as required by Executive Order 41
  - President Sydow appointed a new emergency management team in compliance with the Governor's Executive Order (EO) 41, that includes key faculty and staff members.
- Completion of an exercise that tested the College's response to an emergency incident as required by the Clery Act.
  - EMT members were engaged in a facilitated analysis of an emergency situation (suicide event) in an informal, stress free environment. The discussion allowed members to examine and resolve problems based on existing operational plans and enabled members to identify where those plans need to be refined.
  - Tested the members ability to function in a NIMS environment.
- Revised and submitted Continuity Of Operations Plan (COOP) to the Virginia Department of Emergency Management as required by EO 41.
  - Plan was reviewed and updated.
- Implemented an enhanced Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) program.
  - In an effort to improve compliance with the Federal Right to Know Act, the College purchased a program that allows the posting of MSDS sheets on-line.

Title IX:

EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EXPERIENCE PHASE I REPORT 2015-16

J. Tyler Hart, Dean of Enrollment Services

Context & Overview

When the Board of Visitors approved RBC-19 in April of 2013, Richard Bland College of William & Mary (RBC) began researching data-driven solutions for student support services. In January, 2015, a model was identified that aligned with the newly stated vision of RBC: "Richard Bland College is in the vanguard of learning-outcomes based liberal arts education for university transfer and a model for testing and applying outcomes-driven solutions in higher education." In April, 2015, with the financial support of the college Foundation, RBC entered into a partnership with IBM-Portal to launch the Exceptional Student Experience at Richard Bland College (ESE@RBC) in support of our bold vision of 100% student success. The scope of the project was to build a predictive analytics tool that would alert the College when a student was at-risk. The outcome of the project was designed to increase student support for all students with a focus on at-risk populations to improve retention and graduation. To achieve the results we needed from the predictive model, we had to revisit our business processes and synchronize our limited resources around ensuring the right students were getting the right support. The result was a student centric, wrap-around support and advising model that uses data to achieve better student outcomes and improved engagement and retention.

The IBM-Portal relationship brought much more than data to improve student success. It also brought contacts with colleges in the United Kingdom where a similar student-centric model had already been deployed. In November 2015, RBC's President, Dr. Debbie Sydow, visited Brockenhurst College to learn how they used the Learner Mentor student model, along with predictive student data, to improve student outcomes. Connecting with Brockenhurst allowed us to reflect on what other gaps existed in our processes and what investments would be needed going forward. This process identified the need for an internal data warehouse so we can connect dispersed data from a variety of systems putting information about each student at our fingertips.

After identifying the need for a data warehouse, RBC conducted a cost-benefit analysis of outsourcing the creation of a data warehouse to IBM-Portal or doing so internally. Because of the increased functionality gained by having an internal resource deployed to build a data warehouse as well as the agility garnered by maintaining the predictive model internally, RBC conducted a search for a Chief Innovation, Strategy, & Information Officer, and a Director of Institutional Research.

Beginning Fall 2016 semester, RBC has deployed its own predictive model of the propensity to drop for incoming freshmen. This has yielded a 70% accurate prediction. We are 25% complete on the initial construction of data warehouse, allowing us to put all the data from dispersed systems in the hands of the Learner Mentors in a timely manner. By Spring 2017, Learner Mentors will have one system to view, utilize, and record student data and interventions. Bringing these resources in-house has made it possible for us to effectively streamline business process and increase timeliness and accuracy of the data needed to improve student outcomes.

Program Description – ESE@RBC

Incoming students at RBC take a placement test to determine their skill level in mathematics and English. Guidance Practitioners administer a brief survey to determine students' academic, transfer, and career goals. Students are then given pre-set schedules for their first semester, ensuring they are not taking classes that they do not need or that will not count toward their degree/transfer path. Next, students are paired with a Learner Mentor to serve as a single point of contact for that student from orientation to graduation (see attachment for Learner Mentor Biographies).

Once the Learner Mentors have a case load of students, they monitor multiple data sources to determine what types of interventions are necessary for that student. The Learner Mentor knows their propensity to drop (with 70% accuracy), the number of risk factors, the student's current academic performance, and the number and type of interventions the student has received to date. The graph below illustrates how the predictive model created a new variable using the total number of risk factors. There is a correlated relationship between the risk factor variable and the propensity to drop.

Risk factors include:

1. High School GPA < 3.0
2. Minority Student
3. Standard High School Diploma or GED
4. Male
5. Non-Standard Admissions Type
6. Residential Student
7. From Outside the Metro Richmond Area

Utilizing this data, we added the total number of risk factors to the Learner Mentor Dashboard giving the Learner Mentor access to data that helps them develop relationships and prescribe a one-size-fits-one intervention.

Based on this data, Learner Mentors develop a communications plan for each student based on the risk levels, focusing on relationships with students that have medium to high risk. Students with the lowest risk are contacted for traditional advising and support, while Learner Mentors are much more proactive for students with greater risk factors. In the pilot year, Learner Mentors intervened with students 1,102 times logging 7,428 call notes.

Executive Summary

At the core of the ESE@RBC project is a focus of one-to-one education that streamlines academic pathways with individualized support to increase engagement and academic achievement among our students.

100% Student Success

The pilot year of this project has taught us many valuable lessons. Most importantly we have refined our business processes with a focus on data capture. The data has enabled us to focus resources in target areas. And this has paid off: we have increased our Fall-to-Fall retention by 5%.

Students also performed better academically with 75% more students achieving a 3.8 GPA or better and 30% more with a 3.25 GPA or better.

Next Steps

For the Fall 2017 semester, all students enrolled at RBC have been paired with a Learner Mentor. With the addition of four new, highly-trained Learner Mentors and a newly renovated Student Success Center (serving as a one-stop student center), we will continue to focus on data collection in connection with programmatic investment. We wrote and received a grant to help pay for a summer math bridge program (piloted Summer 2016) for at-risk students. 93% of students advance to a higher level mathematics course, 86% moved directly to College Algebra. This program will be expanded in Summer 2017.

We are now applying for a more substantial SCHEV grant to expand this program to school districts that have been identified as high-risk through our predictive model. By using the data in the model to address several risk factors, we can assess what is working and what is not, based on the impact our efforts are having on retention over time.

We are also piloting a First-Year Experience course this fall and will use the data from this course to expand the curriculum to the entire campus community in the Fall 2017. The long-term vision for this student success program encompasses the freshmen and sophomore years, where academic leaders will walk students through the college experience, from choosing a major and career field to picking a transfer school and program-to-program articulation path. Although the project has transformed in scope and shape, the outcomes remain consistent with advancing 100% student success. The RBC campus community has embraced the ESE@RBC brand and we are committed to refining processes for effective and efficient data gathering and continuous improvement. We achieved this outcome through well-defined assessment practices and nimble response times to workflow barriers using data.

Thoughts on Being a LM: Being a Learner Mentor is rewarding to me because many people say that college is the best time of your life without thinking of how hard it can sometimes be. While it is an awesome and amazing journey, there are also many bumps along the way. Learner Mentors, as well as the rest of the RBC campus community, are there to make those bumps less of an obstruction. I believe that a big part of education is continuing to work on yourself as a person not only academically but in all other areas of life. Developing the "whole student" is a big part of we as Learner Mentors aim to do.

Residential and Student Life

2015-2016

Review

Corey L. Scott, Ed.D.

Associate Dean, Residential & Student Life

Kuk and Banning (2009) wrote that “student affairs organizations have become complex entities and serve as a critical link to student success and the quality of the overall educational experience in collegiate institutions” (p. 94). Black (2007) went on to indicate that social environments will be looked at as a mechanism for reinforcing academic achievement through a focus on co-curricular programming. The way forward to continue the good work of the RBC Strategic Plan (RBC19) is to match the student experience with the student expectation through a robust, compressive student life division to assist in student retention and development.

With this in mind Residential & Student Life set out to reinforce academic excellence with a focus on developing the holistic student.

Office of Residence Life (ORL)

Residence Life saw a tremendous amount of new initiatives and processes. We worked to create Standard Operating Procedures, which govern staff response to 35 different campus incidences. We updated job descriptions and reassigned professional responsibilities to make better use of talents and to improve customer service. ORL staff was engaged in crises management and incident response. Additionally, all ORL staff members became CSA certified through the department of campus police. Resident Assistants and Residence Life Coordinators facilitated 10 programs/activities for student enjoyment and development. ORL saw over and 80% reduction in residential student violations from January 2016 to May 2016. This was partly attributed to a focus on preemptive programming, increased use of counseling techniques, and new training for professional and para-professional staff. In collaboration with campus police ORL implemented 24-hour front desk monitoring.

ORL Staff Development – Richmond, Virginia

Student Conduct Board

We reconfigured the student conduct board to align with the standards of the student handbook. We collaborated with the office of residence life on preemptive programming to reduce infractions of college policies. We strengthened communication with campus police through weekly email updates.

Student Activities & Leadership

We engaged in over 18 collaborative workshops with the academic units. We provided 7 community engagement activities in the campus community. The student assembly was reconstituted with the help and input of students. We showcased over 30 transfer events for our students.

Paint Night Event – Presented by Isiah Lucas (Resident Assistant)

In an effort to improve on the successes of 2015-2016 and to increase student development, we engaged in the creation of a comprehensive strategic plan with three focus areas.

Focus 1: Client Service. Engage in activities that enhance the client experience, while fostering long term relationships and using data & training to make strategic enhancements to that experience.

Focus 2: Transformative Learning. Offer a comprehensive data focused approach to programs/activities geared toward: life skills development, academic readiness/excellence, and college transfer. Engage families as important stakeholders to retention.

Focus 3: Fiscal Stability. Improve the fiscal & facility management within the division through grant writing, the development of projected spending budgets, a thorough review of the budget allocation process, bed space innovation, annual targeted improvements to student facilities, and an energy conservation program.

We are looking forward to a successful 2016-2017 that places student development at the center of what we do.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE*FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

The fall semester began with two days of intense faculty development training. These sessions included advanced Canvas training and Dropout Detective training (a program which works in tandem with our Exceptional Student Experience at RBC and aids in keeping students on successful academic paths). Additionally, the faculty was introduced to the new WIPS2 system, another cutting-edge technological tool which allows faculty and students to project information from their mobile devices to the main classroom screen. These two development days also included the Faculty Assembly, department, and committee meetings. The faculty committees elected the following chairs:

- Academic Standards and Appeals - Dannie Hudson (Mathematics)
- Faculty Affairs - co-chairs - LeAnn Binger (Psychology), Tim Evans (English), Kevin Peters (Biology), and Elizabeth Rescher (English)
- Instructional Programs and Curriculum - Tiffany Birdsong (Psychology)

Without a doubt, the highlight of the faculty development days was the teambuilding session lead by Challenge Discovery. The session was so fruitful for both new and returning faculty alike that it very well could have been called the community building session based on faculty feedback about this highly-rewarding experience. The overwhelmingly positive faculty comments in the concluding exercise of the teambuilding session fostered a renewed sense of collaboration and a most collegial atmosphere with which to begin the semester.

Faculty Governance Review

In the summer of 2015, Dr. Sydow appointed a Shared Governance Task Force to examine the role of the faculty in that system. The recommendations of the Task Force were adopted to replace the unwieldy Faculty Senate model. Changes to the academic structure were also made which included replacing the 2 long-standing academic divisions with 4 smaller academic areas. The adopted recommendations of the Shared Governance Task Force provided a one-year, transitional plan, so the faculty might revisit the issue in greater detail in 2016-2017.

At the request of Dr. Sydow and in my role as faculty representative to the Board of Visitors, I have spearheaded a comprehensive review of the faculty governance system at RBC with the assistance and support of Carol Kelejian, Director of Institutional Research. Ms. Kelejian and I developed the following plan in order to facilitate the most transparent and inclusive process possible which would allow every faculty member an equal opportunity to provide their input:

- Professor Mitten will provide the department chairs with information on the following subjects and will request that they forward them to their department members for perusal before attending the focus group: faculty governance prior to 2013, faculty senate 2013-April 2015, Shared Governance Task Force recommendations summer 2015, and UVA Wise governance model.
- Ms. Kelejian will moderate a focus group for each of the 4 academic departments. Any faculty member who is unable to attend his/her own department meeting is welcome to attend any other department's focus group. Additionally, Ms. Kelejian will offer to meet separately with any faculty member who is unable to attend any of the focus groups.
- Ms. Kelejian will send her report on the data gathered from the focus groups to Prof. Mitten.
- The full faculty will have further opportunity to offer input on faculty governance at RBC in the September 13th meeting of the Faculty Assembly, which shall be lead in an interim fashion by Prof. Mitten.
- Prof. Mitten will work with Dean of Faculty Vern Lindquist to draft a proposal which reflects the data gathered from the focus groups and the input offered at the Faculty Assembly meeting of September 13th.
- Professor Mitten will bring forth said proposal to the Faculty Assembly and will request that a vote be taken on it in the October 13th meeting of the Faculty Assembly.
- Professor Mitten will forward the resultant document to the administration for approval and possible inclusion as an action item on the November agenda of the Board of Visitors.

Faculty Handbook Review Timeline

January 2013 - The RBC Faculty Senate was established.

August 2013 - Dr. Sydow requested that the Faculty Affairs Committee undertake a review of the faculty and adjunct handbooks. The FAC began a review of the Faculty Handbook.

October 2014 - Upon completion of its comprehensive review of the Faculty Handbook, the Faculty Affairs Committee recommended 4 changes regarding formal observations, redistribution of retiring faculty members' salaries, faculty salary increases, and faculty teaching loads.

November 2014 - The Faculty Senate voted in favor of the FAC's recommended changes; those proposed changes were forwarded to the administration for consideration.

August 2015 - Dean Lindquist made available a revised copy of the proposed Draft Faculty Handbook for faculty comment, and the Faculty Affairs Committee, at his request, undertook a review of the document.

December 2015 - The Faculty Affairs Committee made its recommendations to the Faculty Assembly regarding changes to the proposed Draft Faculty Handbook. The Faculty Assembly voted to approve the FAC's recommendations, and those proposed changes were forwarded to the administration for its consideration.

January 2016 - Dean Lindquist distributed proposed language for the grievance/misconduct policy to be added to the Draft Faculty Handbook. The Dean asked faculty to look it over and to contact him with questions or concerns. The Faculty Affairs Committee resumed a review of the Draft Faculty Handbook.

February 2016 - Following the February meeting of the William & Mary Board of Visitors, Dr. Sydow and Dean Lindquist met with the FAC to clarify that there was no deadline by which the FAC needed to recommend changes to the Faculty Handbook and that the Committee was free to take as much time as it deemed necessary to review and recommend changes to the document. Additionally, a public comment period was held for the discussion of the Draft Faculty Handbook in the February meeting of the Faculty Assembly.

March 2016 - A public comment period was held for the discussion of the Draft Faculty Handbook in the March meeting of the Faculty Assembly.

Celia Brockway, Instructor of Music, is starting the RBC Music Club. The pep band and choir will perform at events on campus.

Michelle Delano, Professor of Art, announced that there will be an exhibit of RBC Art at the Petersburg Area Art League beginning with Friday for the Arts on September 9th. Her professional studio has been working with the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts to produce an interactive STEM video for statewide educational use, middle school through college, as part of their Art In Action! video series. Prof. Delano serves on the VMFA College Advisory Council and mentors two student representatives on the Council: Cecilia Gonzalez and Kenyah Ruffin. They are the youngest and only two-year school representatives on the statewide council, which includes professors from UR, UVA, RM, VSU, VUU, JTCC, JSR, etc. Prof. Delano and the student representatives have planned a College Night at the VMFA for October 6th, which includes interactive projects and a lecture/gallery talk on the Civil Rights photographer Gordon Parks. A shuttle bus is scheduled for that evening to the VMFA. The group will be meeting again September 19th to plan college outreach activities to strengthen college programming across disciplines at the VMFA. Three recent RBC art graduates will be showing their work at the upcoming First Fridays in Richmond at the Visual Arts Studio. Prof. Delano has also received a grant to attend the AAUP conference on shared governance in Washington, DC from Sept 30 - Oct. 2, 2016.

Barbara Morgan, Associate Professor of Psychology, provided the following update on activities of the Equine Program:

- Foster Program
- Last spring, students in the equine program and Dr. Morgan raised $5000 to care for two foster horses from a local horse rescue. The horses arrived on campus in April, each with their unique disability and potential. Six volunteer students and Dr. Morgan cared for and trained the horses throughout the summer. These same volunteers are also caring for two leased horses for the riding program and the foster horses this semester. In addition, the students provide assistance in working with the Equine Therapy Certificate horses who are volunteer horses that are trailered to the facility for classes.
- EAGALA Public Trainings
- RBC hosted its first public training held by the Equine Assisted Growth and Learning Association (EAGALA) in April. Dr. Morgan is a member of the EAGALA Board of Directors. There were over 40 attendees from all over the country and as far away as Chile and Canada. In July, RBC hosted a second public training with 40 attendees. Five opted to stay in our dormitories and were quite complimentary of the service provided by Ms. Jamie Camp who oversees RBC's auxiliary services. Two colleges, Sapir College in Israel and Sewanee – The College of the South have requested information about our certificate program so that they can model new programs after the one at RBC. Below is a letter written to Dr. Sydow about the excellent performance of our students at these trainings.

September 21-23 2016

Dear Dr. Sydow:

My name is Lee Anne Dickerson and I am a clinical psychologist in the Hampton Roads area. I recently attended the EAGALA Part 2 Workshop at Richard Bland's Equine Center. I wanted to let you know how impressive the facility is, but more importantly how impressive your students are. I have taught undergraduate and graduate courses, as well as supervised Master's and Doctoral level students and frankly, stopped a few years ago because it became discouraging. The students I met at this workshop were mature, insightful, and eager to learn. I was blown away at the level of insight they displayed during group discussions and role plays. I also met a young lady who volunteered to care for the animals and her dream is to become a veterinarian. The ownership that those students have taken in caring for the animals and the program is exciting and encouraging.

The Equine Certification Program is such an asset to Richard Bland and reflects forward-thinking leadership. This program exposes counseling students to experiences and insights that can't be taught in a traditional classroom. We have interns at the group private practice that I am a part of and I am making plans to bring them to the barn where I do my EAGALA work after seeing what Dr. Morgan has done with her students. I also love the fact that this program benefits students in other majors as well. Thank you again for the good work that Richard Bland is doing in creating future leaders.

Sincerely,

*Lee Anne Dickerson, Psy.D.

- Dr. Morgan is also engaging in two research projects: An Investigation into the Efficacy of an Equine-assisted First Year Experience Module and A Comparison of Equine-assisted Stress Management to Yoga and Mindfulness Hiking. Both projects have been approved by RBC's Protection of Human Subjects Committee

Jena Morrison, full-time faculty member teaching Sociology, has successfully launched the pilot semester of her Mindful Meditation program. Prof. Morrison is also in the process of becoming an Ambassador for Project Yoga Richmond. She has been

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE
STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

A new academic year has brought back many of the numbers we saw last year. Enrollment continues to grow and once again we have the largest freshman class in school history! This attests to Richard Bland College's continuous growth. It is one of Virginia's fastest growing colleges and fastest among two-year schools.

Students moved in over a span of three days starting on August 10th. A unique more efficient system was used this year to help new and returning students get situated in their new homes. Students had the weekend to interact and socialize with one another and on August 15th classes started and they got to meet their new professors. Later in the month students, faculty, and Alumni gathered to be a part of the Athletic kickoff in Statesman Hall which included competitions such as a Dunk Contest for all to watch. On August 31-September 2 students voted for assembly members on the returning Online Management System, Canvas. On September 3 the results were announced. Voting was initiated much sooner this year allowing the assembly more time to meet during the academic year.

Last year campus life expanded tremendously, offering more for activities for students to participate in. A final review of student activities and leadership events for the 2015-16 school year is enclosed as part of this report.

On August 31st the RBC Commons was home to many Clubs and Organizations as they "tabled" to students' interests. Among these groups included the National Guard, Music Club, Business/Economics Club and many others. Intermural sports such as Beach Volleyball, Soccer, and Flag Football are starting within the next couple weeks, while our collegiate sports programs continue to remain contenders. Basketball and Softball have already put in hard work to prepare for their seasons still months away, but Soccer and Golf are full swing and looking strong with larger rosters than ever before.

RBC has much in plan in regards to their infrastructure the next few years. During the summer a portion of the library was converted into Offices for Learner Mentors and other Student Support faculty so they can be more available to the students. This is just the first phase of three. There was also improvements that went on for the walkways and gathering areas around campus. Multiple phases of the project will continue with the final phase ending in the Fall of 2017. Also a whole new 4,500 square foot storage facility is in the process of being constructed and is intended to be finished in the late Fall of 2016. Last year plans to renovate the old Social Science and Humanities building into additional dorms was presented to the Board. Surveyors have been on site and renovations will be starting soon. The new dorm building will be ready for the Fall semester of 2017. These are just the projects ready for the next year. RBC has many more to finalize and start for the years after.

RBC last year strived for "100 percent student success". The number improved dramatically in the classroom having more students make the Dean's list than ever before. This motivation continues, and with the advancements RBC has put into place this year alone, it looks to be off to an even brighter future! Students are more engaged, faculty are more informed, and the overall Statesmen experience has been outstanding for residential students, commuters, and all involved with the college. Everyone at Richard Bland College is excited to see what the rest of this year has in store.

Office of Student Activities and Leadership SWOC

Over the course of the past year, we have identified the following strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges related to promoting student activities and leadership at Richard Bland College.

STRENGTHS

- Student leaders are motivated to lead activities, organize fundraisers, and other programming.
- Faculty and staff are enthusiastic partners as event chaperones, student organization sponsors, and more.
- Community organizations such as VSU and Walnut Hill have emerged as willing partners and collaborators.
- Cultural and historical awareness events have become a celebrated aspect of campus life at RBC.

WEAKNESSES

- The high turnover of students can hinder leadership retention and student organization continuity.
- Finding more effective methods of engaging commuter students in all areas of campus life.
- There is a need for more voter registration opportunities and programs/groups related to political issues.

OPPORTUNITIES

- Students have shown a great interest in civic engagement opportunities at local community partners.
- Student leaders could greatly benefit from more frequent leadership development and guest speakers.
- Social events on the weekends would improve campus life and student satisfaction.
- The rise of various social media platforms such as Snapchat could be a new communications tool.

CHALLENGES

- The popularity and accessibility of all sorts of media are possibly keeping students home and inside.
- Student employment and responsibilities at home may be leaving less time for enrichment activities.
- Pervading culture of prejudice sometimes prevents students from valuing and celebrating diversity.
- Some students are not matriculating with basic socio-emotional, psychological, and cognitive skills.

LOOKING AHEAD

In the next year, the Office of Student Engagement plans to implement a more robust program of civic engagement, leadership development, and academic enrichment in addition to existing social events and campus traditions. In addition, our office is planning several collaborations with Virginia State University in order to amplify our resources, events, and enrichment opportunities.

Thank you!

Thank you to all our campus partners for your help making RBC a more exciting, inclusive, and uplifting institution for our students and staff. We truly have found that collaboration is the key to success and look forward to working more with each of you in the coming year.

Sincerely,

Michael Rogers

Board Conference Room—Blow Memorial Hall

Attendees: John Charles Thomas, Chair; Christopher M. Little, Vice Chair; Ann Green Baise, John E. Littel, William H. Payne II, and DeRonda M. Short. Other Board members present: Karen Kennedy Schultz and faculty representative Suzanne Raitt. Others present: Kiersten L. Boyce, Kent B. Erdahl, Provost Michael R. Halleran, Penelope G. Howard, Samuel E. Jones, Jennifer Latour, Deborah A. Love, Pamela H. Mason, Sarah E. Melchior, Cynthia H. Norwood, John M. Poma, Amy S. Sebring, Richard Bland President Debbie L. Sydow, Brian W. Whitson, Sandra J. Wilms and other William and Mary and Richard Bland staff.

Chair John Charles Thomas called the meeting to order at 7:45 a.m.

Recognizing that a quorum was present, Judge Thomas asked for a motion to approve the minutes of the meeting of February 4, 2016. Motion was made by Mr. Little, seconded by Mr. Littel and approved by a voice vote.

Judge Thomas asked Provost Michael Halleran for a report on a recent amendment to the Faculty Handbook. The Provost explained that the Faculty Handbook has been revised to address procedures for handling complains of sexual harassment, discrimination, and harassment. The amended procedures align with the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education and will apply to both faculty and staff. A preponderance of the evidence standard will be applied and investigations will be performed by trained investigators. The Provost advised that the Faculty Assembly unanimously approved this Handbook amendment and it is on the agenda for action by the Committee on Academic Affairs. The Committee thanked the Provost for his leadership regarding this matter.

Judge Thomas asked Kiersten Boyce, Chief Compliance Officer, for her report. Ms. Boyce introduced Eric Hopkins, a new investigator joining the staff. She explained that Mr. Hopkins brings significant experience and comes from the Office of the Inspector General. The Committee welcomed Mr. Hopkins. Ms. Boyce provided an overview of recent high profile assault and harassment cases at other institutions that have been in the news. She also provided an update on legislative activity noting a program for SCHEV to create a regional center for sex- and gender-based violence. Ms. Boyce reported that the Office had recently issued the annual notice to Campus Security Authorities, a Clery Act compliance activity. Next, Ms. Boyce discussed the upcoming presentation from the Chief Human Resources Officer regarding the employee survey and the survey data relevant to assessing the compliance and ethics program; further analysis of the survey will be undertaken. Finally, Ms. Boyce presented statistics regarding FY2016 Title IX and VAWA reports and investigations to date. A brief discussion ensued.

MINUTES

Judge Thomas asked the Director of Internal Audit, Kent Erdahl, for his report. Mr. Erdahl first commented on recently issued audit reports, including the Fixed Asset audit. Internal Audit recommended moving responsibility for Fixed Asset accounting from Procurement to Financial Reporting. Financial Reporting skill sets better align with Fixed Asset accounting. Next Mr. Erdahl commented on Enterprise Risk Management (ERM), noting that the ERM Committee is performing an evaluation of risk identification and risk reporting processes. A consolidation of existing risks is underway and the ERM Committee is developing a process to better communicate the risk profile. Consistent with prior practice, the Committee agreed that BOV risk reporting should originate through the Audit and Compliance Committee. Judge Thomas and Ms. Baise requested an update on ERM Committee activity at a future meeting.

Next, Mr. Erdahl communicated that the Inspector General's Office has initiated an efficiency review at the College of William and Mary. Efficiency reviews have been performed at other public universities, and are in response to a Commonwealth-wide risk assessment. Mr. Erdahl communicated that an internal audit department Quality Assurance Review is scheduled in May. Quality Assurance Reviews are performed on a five year cycle and the last review was performed in 2011. As required by professional standards, Mr. Erdahl communicated that the internal audit department is organizationally independent. Finally, Mr. Erdahl provided an update on internal audit report follow-up testing. He commented that athletic sports camps remediation efforts are well underway and will provide appropriate sports camp/college independence. A brief discussion ensued.

Judge Thomas moved that the Committee on Audit and Compliance of the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary first convene in Closed Session for the purpose of discussing specific personnel matters; to discuss internal investigations involving identifiable students and/or employees, and for consultation with legal counsel regarding specific legal matters, and then in Executive Session for the purpose of discussing personnel matters pertaining to the performance and evaluations of specific executive employees, as provided for in Section 2.2-3711.A. 1., 2., and 7., of the Code of Virginia. Motion was seconded by Mr. Little and approved by voice vote of the Committee. Observers were asked to leave the room and the Committee went into closed session at 8:22 a.m.

The Committee reconvened in open session at 9:20 a.m. Judge Thomas reviewed the topics discussed in closed session and moved the adoption of the Resolution certifying that the closed session was held in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act. Motion was seconded by Mr. Little and approved by roll call vote conducted by Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration Samuel E. Jones (Certification Resolution is appended.)

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned at 9:20 a.m.

MINUTES – APRIL 21, 2016

MINUTES

April 21, 2016
Board Room – Blow Memorial Hall

Attendees: Ann Green Baise, Chair; John Charles Thomas, Vice Chair; James A. Hixon, William H. Payne, II; Karen Kennedy Shultz; Elizabeth Barnes, faculty representative. Board members present: Kendrick F. Ashton, Jr., Lynn M. Dillon, Robert E. Scott, DeRonda M. Short, Todd A. Stottlemeyer, H. Thomas Watkins III. Others present: President W. Taylor Reveley III; Michael Provost Michael A. Halleran, Virginia M. Ambler, Henry R. Broaddus, Edward C. Driscoll, Jr., Michael J. Fox, Samuel E. Jones, Jennifer Latour, John Poma, Dean John T. Wells, Brian T. Whitson, Sandra J. Wilms, and other College and VIMS faculty and staff.

Chair Ann Green Baise called the meeting to order at 11:15 a.m. Recognizing that a quorum was present, Ms. Baise requested a motion to approve the minutes of the February 4, 2016, meeting. Motion was made by Mr. Thomas, seconded by Mr. Hixon, and approved by voice vote of the Committee.

Ms. Baise introduced the Building Code Official, David W. Rudloff, who had provided the Committee with a written report of work in progress, detailed in Enclosure A. The Committee had no questions.

Chief Human Resources Officer John Poma provided an update on the Commonwealth's Optional Retirement Plan (ORP). As a tier 3 institution under Management Agreement with the Commonwealth, the College could run its own ORP directly, though such a move would require the approval of VRS. Mr. Poma reviewed the number of participants (3100+), as well the total amount invested ($337M). Mr. Poma discussed advantages of opting-out, and the use of Cap Trust to provide expertise and guidance. Mr. Poma reviewed the next steps which include application to VRS, development of a formal plan document and operational guidelines. Open enrollment could occur as soon as October 1, 2016, with going-live occurring in first quarter of 2017.

John Poma then reviewed for the Committee Resolution 9, Resolution to Approve Optional Retirement Plan for William & Mary Faculty.

Mr. Poma next presented the results of the employee survey. There was very high participation, indicating a highly engaged workforce, who want to make the College succeed as a workplace. The survey had both positive and negative takeaways, which Mr. Poma reviewed.

Human Resources partnered with the President's Task Force on Race and Race Relations to review campus climate for African American employees. Generally speaking, African American employees scored the College lower than non-African Americans. The same could be said for exempt versus non-exempt employees.

Mr. Poma reviewed follow-on action steps which include launch new performance management and learning management systems in fall of 2016. The Committee asked several questions.

Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration Samuel E. Jones provided highlights from the 2016 General Assembly, noting that while the Governor recommended funding the Integrated Science Center 4 (ISC 4), renovation and expansion of the university's Fine Arts facilities remains the top priority. Subsequently, William & Mary received funding not only for ISC 4 but also for the Fine and Performing Arts, phases 1 & 2. These projects along with the West Campus Utility Plant, total nearly $200M of the $1.3 B bond bill for Higher Education. Mr. Jones introduced Mr. Scott Sandridge, the College's DPB Analyst and primary advocate for the College with the Governor. The Committee asked several questions.

Mr. Jones briefly reviewed Resolution 10, Resolution to Approve Capital Project: Busch Grass Field Replacement; Resolution 11, Resolution to Approve Revised Budget: Construct Integrated Wellness Center; Resolution 12, Resolution to Approve Naming: The McLeod Tyler Wellness Center; Resolution 13, Resolution to Approve Naming: Martha Wren Briggs Amphitheatre at Lake Matoaka; Resolution 14, Resolution to Approve Demolition of 406 Jamestown Road; Resolution 15, Resolution to Approve Demolition of 1984 Addition at One Tribe Place; and Resolution 16, Resolution to Approve Sale of Surplus Property: Parcel C-3 at Hofstadter Road.

The Committee recessed at 12:15 p.m. and moved to Blow Hall Room 201 for lunch and discussion of the club sport program with student leaders and officers of the club sports. The Committee reconvened in the Board Room at 1:35 p.m.

Ms. Baise shared with the Committee her recent trip to VIMS' Eastern Shore Lab at Wachapreague.

Dean John T. Wells provided highlights from VIMS' written report on capital outlay projects, as detailed in Enclosure C. He updated the status of design and construction on the Bay Eagle replacement vessel, which VIMS expects to award for construction in September of 2016.

Dean Wells reported on the outcome of the activities of the 2016 General Assembly. VIMS worked hard to maintain what was included in the Governor's budget for VIMS, and was successful. The Committee had no questions.

Dean Wells briefly reviewed Resolution 17, Resolution to Approve Non-General Fund Capital Project: Dredge Boat Basin & Channel. Five additional resolutions relating to VIMS were distributed and reviewed – Resolution 35, Resolution to Approve Easement for Consolidated Research Facility: Verizon South Inc.; Resolution 36, Resolution to Approve Easement for Consolidated Research Facility: Virginia Electric and Power Company; Resolution 37, Resolution to Approve Easement for Facilities Management Building: Cox Communications; Resolution 38, Resolution to Approve Easement for Facilities Management Building: Verizon South Inc.; and Resolution 39, Resolution to Approve Easement for Facilities Management Building: Virginia Electric and Power Company.

Ms. Baise asked for a motion to approve Resolutions 8 through 15, Resolution 17, and HANDOUT Resolutions 35 through 39 as a block, for recommendation to the full Board for adoption. Motion was made by Mr. Thomas, seconded by Mr. Payne, and approved by voice vote of the Committee. (Resolutions 35 through 39 are appended.)

The Committee chose to discuss and act separately on Resolution 16 to approve the Sale of Surplus Property. The Committee wanted to ensure that the property will be used for research and development. Ms. Baise proposed a revision to the final paragraph to add more specific language: "... and so long as any development is in support of SURA and Jefferson Lab." Ms. Baise requested a motion to approve Resolution 16 as revised. Motion was made by Ms. Schultz, seconded by Ms. Short, and approved by voice vote of the Committee. (Resolution 16R is appended.)

The reports completed, and there being no further business, the Committee adjourned at 1:55p.m.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
RESOLUTION TO APPROVE RENAMING OF
JAMESTOWN COMPLEX DORMITORIES

Whereas, the College of William & Mary seeks to appropriately honor and remember those who have made a substantial contribution to the institution throughout its history; and

Whereas, William & Mary has undertaken efforts to better understand its involvement in slavery and segregation as well as its ongoing relationship with the African-American community through the Lemon Project, established in 2009; and

Whereas, the Task Force on Race and Race Relations, composed of students, faculty, staff, alumni and a member of the Board of Visitors, was formed by President Reveley in 2015 to, as part of its charge, examine how the racial climate is experienced by individual members of our community, and, to that end, met regularly over the past year and held six open forums on campus; and

Whereas, the Task Force has completed its report, with one of the most significant recommendations being to name university buildings in memory of African Americans important to William & Mary's past; and

Whereas, the President recommends renaming the two Jamestown Complex residence halls, which hold prominent placement on William & Mary's campus, to honor significant African American figures in William & Mary's history;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Visitors supports the recommendation of the President to rename the Jamestown Complex residence halls.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That one of the residence halls become Lemon Hall, named after an enslaved man owned by William & Mary in the late 18th century and the person for whom The Lemon Project is named. While very little is known about Lemon himself, his name represents an effort that has become a model for other universities looking to study, acknowledge and learn from their past history. In many ways, Lemon stands in the place of the known and unknown African Americans who helped to build, maintain and move the university forward.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the other residence hall become Hardy Hall, named after the late Dr. Carroll F.S. Hardy, the longtime Student Affairs administrator who was affectionately known on campus as “Dean Hardy,” and who for over 15 years worked tirelessly to increase the diversity of our student body through six summer enrichment programs for students in grades 8 to 12, by establishing the National Black Student Leadership Development Conference for college students, through the creation and nurturing of 15 multicultural student organizations, and by founding the Hulon Willis Association, a William & Mary organization devoted to African-American alumni. Dean Hardy was elected an honorary alumna of the College in 2012.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the Board directs the President and the administration to move forward with this renaming with all deliberate speed.

WHEREAS, under the 2006 Management Agreement (the “Agreement”) with the Commonwealth, the College’s Board of Visitors has the authority to dispose of property acquired by gift, devise or non-general fund purchase, in accordance with Subchapter 3, (§23.38.91 et seq.) of the Restructured Higher Education Administrative and Operations Act, Chapter 4.10 (§23-38.88 et seq.) of Title 23 of the Code of Virginia, effective July 1, 2006 (the “Act”), as amended and renewed in 2009 and 2013; and

204 – 18003 Improve: Lake Matoaka Dam Spillway

Design Team: Draper Aden

Biennium: 2012-2014

Budget: $3,169,182

Contractor: TBD

Funding Source: state

Obligated to date: $271,095

Description: State Dam Safety Regulations currently require that the spillways of all high hazard dams must pass 90% of the probable maximum flood (PMF). This results in 7 foot overtopping of existing earthen dam.

Progress: The Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) Division of Dam Safety has approved the use of Roller Compacted Concrete (RCC) on the downstream face of the dam to meet the new spillway requirement. This method will require approximately $2.4M in additional state funds. The legislature subsequently directed DEQ to complete an evaluation of Probable Maximum Precipitation (PMP), which was provided to officials on 12/9/15. Guidance has been issued in the form of an updated PMP. Draper Aden is running calculations using the new PMP to determine project impact. Upon completion of the analysis, the College will request permission to proceed to preliminary design using the new design criteria and will prepare a revised project budget. Construction is contingent upon authorization of additional funding.

204 – 18004 Improve: Campus Stormwater Infrastructure

At issue is the ability to use credits for nitrogen, phosphorus and sediment credits accumulated before 2009. The credits are being reviewed by the DEQ Central Office. The design of supporting projects began in December and is anticipated to take ten months from inception through permitting. Construction will require approximately twelve (12) months and will be phased, as

Upon contract execution, four rooms in the basement, second floor and attic of Landrum Hall will be scheduled for selective demolition in order to gain an accurate appraisal of the 1958 construction – particularly the structural frame and building systems. Selective demolition at the outset of design should prevent encountering significant “unforeseen conditions” and the associated additional cost and time delay after the start of construction. Construction duration is twelve months to support occupancy in the fall of 2018.

WHEREAS, pursuant to and in furtherance of Chapter 3.2, Title 23 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended (the “Act”), the Virginia College Building Authority (the “Authority”) developed a program (the “Program”) to purchase debt instruments issued by public institutions of higher education in the Commonwealth of Virginia (“Participating Institutions” and each a “Participating Institution”) to finance or refinance projects of capital improvement (“Capital Projects” and each a “Capital Project”) included in a bill passed by a majority of each house of the General Assembly of Virginia (the “General Assembly”);

WHEREAS, under the Program the Authority from time to time issues its Educational Facilities Revenue Bonds (Public Higher Education Financing Program) (“Pooled Bonds”) to finance the purchase or refunding of debt instruments issued by Participating Institutions to finance or refinance Capital Projects;

WHEREAS, if a Participating Institution desires to finance or refinance a Capital Project through the Program it must enter into a loan agreement with the Authority, under which: (i) the Participating Institution will issue its promissory note pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 23 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, to evidence a loan to it by the Authority; (ii) the Authority will agree to issue Pooled Bonds and use proceeds thereof to purchase the promissory note; (iii) the Participating Institution will agree to use proceeds of Pooled Bonds, loaned to it and received in exchange for its promissory note, to finance or refinance the Capital Project and to not take actions that may jeopardize any federal tax-exempt status of interest on Pooled Bonds allocable to financing or refinancing the Capital Project; and (iv) the Participating Institution will agree to make payments under the promissory note in sums sufficient to pay, together with certain administrative and arbitrage rebate payments, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on such Pooled Bonds;

WHEREAS, the Board of Visitors (the “Board”) of THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY (the “Institution”) from time to time desires to finance or refinance Capital Projects for the Institution as a Participating Institution under the Program, and now proposes that the Institution issue its promissory note or notes (collectively, the “Note”) to be sold to the Authority in accordance with a loan agreement or loan agreements between the Institution and the Authority (collectively, the “Loan Agreement”), under which proceeds of Pooled Bonds will be loaned to and received by the Institution in exchange for the Note, to finance or refinance costs of the following Capital Projects authorized for bond financing by the

General Assembly: the Renovate/Expand Zable Stadium (204-18112) and Replace Busch Field Turf (204-17809) (collectively, the "Project"); and

WHEREAS, the Board desires to designate certain Institution officers (i) delegated the authority to approve the forms of and to execute and deliver the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto, and any other documents necessary or desirable in connection with financing or refinancing costs of the Project through and participation in the Program; and (ii) responsible for monitoring post-issuance compliance with covenants of the Institution related to maintaining any federal tax-exempt status of interest on Pooled Bonds.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD:

Section 1. The Project is hereby designated to be undertaken and financed or refinanced by the Authority and, accordingly, the President, Provost, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, and Chief Financial Officer (the "Authorized Officers") are each hereby delegated and invested with full power and authority to approve the forms of the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise), and any pledge to the payment of the Note and any amendment thereto of total gross university sponsored overhead, unrestricted endowment income, tuition and fees, indirect cost recoveries, auxiliary enterprise revenues, general and nongeneral fund appropriations and other revenues not required by law or previous binding contract to be devoted to some other purpose, restricted by a gift instrument for another purpose or excluded from such pledge as provided in the Loan Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

Section 2. Subject to the provisions of Section 3 hereof, the Authorized Officers are each hereby delegated and invested with full power and authority to execute, deliver and issue, on behalf of the Institution, (a) the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise), with approval of such documents in accordance with Section 1 hereof evidenced conclusively by the execution and delivery of the respective document, and (b) any other documents, instruments or certificates as may be deemed necessary or desirable to finance or refinance costs of the Project through and participate in the Program, and to further carry out the purposes and intent of this resolution. The Authorized Officers are authorized and directed to take such steps and deliver such certificates in connection with delivery of the Note, and any amendment thereto, as may be required under any existing obligations, including bond resolutions relating to any outstanding general revenue pledge bonds, and to notify Virginia Department of Treasury representatives serving as Authority staff at least 60 days in advance of a pledge of any amounts pledged to the payment of the Note in accordance with Section 1 hereof to, or as security for, the payment of any other Institution obligations issued or entered into after the date hereof for so long as the Note and any amendments thereto remain outstanding.

Section 3. The authorizations given above as to the approval, execution, delivery and issuance of the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise) are subject to the following parameters: (a) the principal amount to be paid under the Note allocable to any component of the Project, together with the principal amount of any other indebtedness with respect to such component, shall not be greater than the amount authorized for such component by the General Assembly plus amounts needed to fund issuance costs, original issue discount, other financing (including without limitation refunding) expenses and any other increase permitted by law; (b) the aggregate principal amount of the Note shall in no event exceed $4,334,387 as the same may be so increased; (c) the aggregate interest rate payable under the Note shall not exceed a "true" or "Canadian" interest cost more than 50 basis points higher than the interest rate for "AA" rated securities with comparable maturities, as reported by Thomson Municipal Market Data (MMD) or another comparable service or index, as of the date that the interest rates are determined, taking into account any original issue discount or premium; (d) the weighted average maturity of the principal payments due under the Note shall not exceed 20 years after the original issue date of the Note; (e) the last principal payment date under the Note shall not extend beyond the reasonably expected weighted economic life of the Project; and (f) subject to the foregoing, the actual amount, interest rates, principal maturities, and date of the Note shall be approved by an Authorized Officer, as evidenced by the execution thereof.

Section 4. The Board acknowledges that if there is a failure to make, as and when due, any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on any promissory note issued by the Institution as a Participating Institution to the Authority under the Program, including without limitation the Note and any amendments thereto, the State Comptroller is authorized under the Program and Section 23-30.29:3 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, to charge against appropriations available to the Institution all future payments of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such promissory note when due and payable and to make such payments to the Authority or its designee, so as to ensure that no future default will occur on such promissory note.

Section 5. The Board agrees that if the Authority determines the Institution as a Participating Institution shall be subject to continuing disclosure obligations under Rule 15c2-12 of the federal Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to any Pooled Bonds, (a) an Authorized Officer shall, and is hereby authorized and directed to, enter into a continuing disclosure undertaking in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Authority, and (b) the Institution will comply with the provisions and disclosure obligations contained therein.

Section 6. The Board designates the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration to be responsible for implementing procedures to monitor post-issuance compliance with covenants in any loan agreement between the Institution as a Participating Institution and the Authority, including the Loan Agreement and any amendments thereto, related to maintaining tax-exempt status for federal income tax purposes of interest on any Pooled Bonds, including without limitation monitoring the use of any portion of all Capital Projects for the Institution financed or refinanced with such Pooled Bonds and compliance with any applicable federal income tax remedial action requirements in connection with certain

RESOLUTION TO APPROVE 2016 MASTER PLAN
OF JAMES MONROE'S HIGHLAND

The President's Commission for James Monroe (the Monroe Commission) and the Monroe Legacy Working Group (appointed by Rector Stottlemeyer) have developed a 2016 Master Plan (the "Plan") to ensure the future of James Monroe's Highland.

With the rediscovery of the archaeological remains of the original 1799 Monroe main house, and the identification of the standing house as the 1818 Presidential Guest House, the understanding of the historic site has fundamentally changed. With this knowledge, the master plan intends to guide development of the property along three primary uses: 1) historic site visitation (tourism); 2) private use of the facilities (for rental revenue); and 3) engagement with William & Mary and other potential communities in James Monroe's legacy through ways that are still being defined.

The master plan, completed by Waterstreet Studio of Charlottesville, creates a re-alignment of visitor experience of the historic core of the property through two perpendicular axes, providing a more intentional visitor arrival sequence, offering visitor amenities, and expanding the potential for visitor exploration and discovery of Monroe's legacy and the history of the site.

A core feature of the master plan is the focus on archaeological excavation on the site of the 1799 main house, to be covered with a pavilion. The plan also envisions the relocation of the Massey house, which will be placed near the 2011 events barn.

The master plan surrounds the historic core with ways for visitors to engage with the landscape, including a set of walking trails within the property, and connector trails to neighboring historic sites Monticello and Morven. It is intended that these trails engage visitors with both history and ecology through signage as well as access to the property.

Conservation agriculture is suggested for areas around the historic core, and natural grasses are used near a sensitively expanded parking area.

The events portion of the property is supported by new outdoor events spaces, including a grassy amphitheater.

The master plan is a framework for the development of Highland in its next phase. It has left many points undefined, such as the size, scope, and architectural details of a visitor pavilion. It is intended that these develop along with the availability of funds for the project.

The Plan is incorporated herein by reference and can be found on the James Monroe Highland and the William & Mary websites.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors hereby endorses and adopts the “2016 Highland Master Plan;” and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board directs the College administration to oversee implementation and ensure compliance with the Plan; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the Plan can only be changed by vote of the Board of Visitors.

Dr. Lambert thanked Scott Percic, Associate Director of Analytics, for his mastermind of preliminary results of live time. Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, Samuel E. Jones, welcomed guest Scott Sandridge, Higher Education Budget and Policy Analyst with the Commonwealth of Virginia's Department of Planning and Budget.

Mr. Jones opened his presentation with a summary of the 2016 General Assembly operating and capital budget actions, which included funding for faculty/staff salary increases; operating costs related to enrollment growth, new facilities, and engineering and design; the President's Precinct; financial aid; and State research initiatives; as well as support for West Campus Utilities; Fine & Performing Arts (Phases 1&2), and the Integrated Science Center IV.

In support of the FY 2017 budget proposal, Mr. Jones reviewed the funding priorities outlined in the Six-Year and Strategic Plans as approved by the Board of Visitors. The William & Mary Promise continues to provide tuition predictability and affordability by offering a 4-year tuition guarantee for in-state undergraduates. Several special initiatives for FY2017 include an allocation of $600,000 to support the work of the Task Force on Race and Race Relations; funding to support sports clubs and extra-curricular activities, providing assistance to students with need; and funding to offset the impact of undergraduate enrollment increases across the disciplines, including the Mason School of Business. Estimated incremental revenue and expenses for FY 2017 totals $13.2 million.

The Board of Visitors approved Resolution 11, Continuation: William & Mary Promise in November 2015, which set the FY 2017 tuition for new in-state undergraduates at $15,674, guaranteed for four years. Mr. Ashton requested a motion to adopt the following resolutions as a block: Resolution 18, FY 2016-17 Operating Budget for Educational and General Programs; Resolution 19, FY 2016-17 Tuition and Fee Structure for Full- and Part-Time Students; Resolution 20, FY 2016-17 Auxiliary Enterprise Operating Budgets; Resolution 21, FY 2016-17 Sponsored Programs Operating Budget; Resolution 22, FY 2016-17 State Appropriated Student Financial Assistance; and Resolution 23, FY 2016-17 Applied Music Fee; and Resolution 24, FY 2016-17 Board of Visitors Private Funds Budget. Motion was made by Mr. Scott, seconded by Ms. Dillon, and approved by voice vote of the Committee.

Mr. Jones noted that a recent evaluation conducted by the Board of Visitors, in cooperation with the Vice President for Student Affairs, has identified a strong interest among students in Sports Clubs, which help to develop student leadership and team building skills. As cost can be a barrier to participation for some students, the Board endorses financial support for Sports Clubs and other extra-curricular activities included in the FY 2017 budget. The Chair requested a motion to adopt Resolution 40, Support for Sports Clubs, which approves an additional allocation of $57,000 in auxiliary funds to supplement Sports Clubs and reduce the student share of funding from 79.3% to 65%. Motion was made by Ms. Roday, seconded by Ms. Baise, and approved by voice vote of the Committee.

Virginia Institute of Marine Science Dean/Director John Wells reviewed the proposed FY 2017 budget for VIMS, highlighting the funding priorities for the Institute. The Chair requested a motion to approve Resolution 25, FY 2016-17 Operating Budget. Motion was made by Mr. Scott, seconded by Mr. Littel and approved by voice vote of the Committee.

The College's investment consultant, Joseph Montgomery of Wells Fargo Advisors, was asked to report on the performance of the College's endowment portfolio. The total value of the Board of Visitors' assets, as of March 31, 2016, was $76.0 million. Although the first quarter of 2016 has been a very volatile period, diversification within the BOV endowment has helped to mitigate risk and end the quarter with positive growth from a total return perspective. The Investment Subcommittee continues to address manager performance and monitor asset classes.

There being no further business, the Committee on Financial Affairs adjourned at 10:57 a.m.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

2016-18 SIX-YEAR PLAN UPDATE

WHEREAS, the College of William & Mary has a long tradition of providing an excellent liberal arts education to the citizens of the Commonwealth and the nation.

WHEREAS, the Governor's Commission on Higher Education has indicated "the Commonwealth's commitment . . . to having a distinctive 'public ivy' at William & Mary;"

WHEREAS, consistent with the requirement of the Higher Education Opportunity Act (the Act), William & Mary developed its 2016-18 Six-Year Plan rooted in this commitment, the goals set out in its Strategic Plan, and the objectives of the Act. This Six-year Plan was approved by the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary in September, 2015.

WHEREAS, the Board of Visitors remains committed to the William & Mary Promise as a business model to enhance the quality of its education while improving predictability and affordability for in-state undergraduate students.

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth's planning process requires an update to the six year-plan on an annual basis, incorporating funding actions by the Commonwealth as reflected in the FY 2017 budget approved by each institution's Board of Visitors.

WHEREAS, the university has reviewed those expenditures necessary to support and enhance its instructional, research, student service, and administrative operations, prioritized those expenditures, and recommended funding through a combination of Commonwealth, College, and reallocated revenue.

WHEREAS, the university continues to evaluate opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its academic/administrative programs and activities.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary, approves the College's Six-year Plan Update to reflect FY 2017 expenditures and tuition and fee charges consistent with the College's FY 2017 operating budgets as approved by the Board in April, 2016.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Visitors recognizes the incremental state support for operations provided by the Commonwealth for FY 2018 and as a result, the update reduces the planned in-state undergraduate tuition increase for incoming students from 7.5% to 4.4%. The Board will take formal action on in-state undergraduate tuition for FY 2018 at its November 2016 meeting.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That FY 2018 expenditures as proposed in the College's original Six-Year Plan are adjusted to reflect the impact of FY 2017 budget actions. Planned FY 2018 expenditures include $11 million in College support supplemented by state funding.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in response to the Commonwealth's direction that the Virginia Institute of Marine Science prepare a separate Six-Year Plan, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary approves the Institute's Six-Year Plan Update to reflect FY 2017 expenditures consistent with the Institute's FY 2017 operating budget as approved by the Board, and FY 2018 expenditures as proposed in the Institute's original Six-Year Plan adjusted to reflect the impact of any state funding actions.

The Board recognizes that on August 26, 2016, the Governor of Virginia, at a joint meeting of the House Appropriations, House Finance, and Senate Finance committees of the General Assembly, identified a general fund revenue shortfall of approximately $1.5 billion reflecting an FY 2016 shortfall in revenues and transfers of $278 million and reduced revenue projections in both years of the 2016-18 biennium. The immediate impact on the university is to eliminate support for the state's share of the FY 2017 proposed 3%, merit-based salary increase for faculty and staff. To date, institutions of higher education have not been asked to develop budget reduction plans. When and if such a request will come is unknown.

2016 DEBT MANAGEMENT REPORT

The College of William & Mary Debt Management Policy was established to address all forms of long-term debt including fixed and variable rate options for capital construction projects and capital leases. Key objectives of the policy include the following:

- To provide guidance to the College in undertaking long-term debt obligations benefiting the College;
- To provide a structured framework for the issuance of long-term debt;
- To provide an on-going process for the College to evaluate the level of its annual debt service and consolidated debt burden; and
- To document the exercise of due diligence in the execution and/or management of the College debt portfolio and use of its financial resources.

The Debt Management Policy is applicable to the College of William & Mary, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, and Richard Bland College.

Background

To date, the College of William & Mary has issued none of its own debt but rather had debt issued on its behalf by the Commonwealth of Virginia. While the College remains responsible for principal and interest associated with this debt, this approach allows the College to minimize issuance costs and take advantage of the Commonwealth's strong credit position.

Long-term debt is used primarily to support the construction or renovation of major auxiliary facilities including residence halls, university centers and dining facilities, parking improvements, and recreational and athletic facilities. College supported debt service for academic facilities has been used to provide supplemental funding for projects receiving significant support from the Commonwealth or for projects where significant private support is available. The typical debt vehicle is a 20 year, fixed rate 9(c) or 9(d) bond issued by the Commonwealth of Virginia. Over the course of the bond period, the Treasurer of Virginia may refinance projects to take advantage of cost saving opportunities.

Standard and Poor's Bond Rating

The College was required to be rated by one of the major credit rating firms as part of its application for Tier 3 status under the higher education restructuring act. The Act required that institutions have at least an "AA-" credit rating for consideration as a Tier 3 institution. In October, 2015, Standard and Poor's reaffirmed its "AA" issuer credit rating for the College citing its strong student quality and demand, consistent break-even financial performance, and solid fund raising and endowment.

Current Debt Position—As of June 30, 2016, outstanding long-term debt totaled $230.1 million consisting of $73.2 million in 9(c) bonds and $156.9 million in 9(d) bonds. Section 9(c) bonds are general obligation bonds issued by the Commonwealth on behalf of the College pursuant to Section 9 of Article X of the Constitution of Virginia. As such, while the College is responsible for repayment, these bonds are backed by the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth. Section 9(d) bonds are issued through the Virginia College Building Authority's Pooled Bond Program and backed by the general revenue pledge of the College. As debt is issued, the College's fee structure is adjusted to generate the funds necessary to support any new debt issuance or, in certain cases, private funds to support the necessary debt service are identified consistent with the requirements of the Debt Management Policy.

Richard Bland College (RBC) has entered into a thirty year capital lease with Richard Bland College Foundation (RBCF) for the provision of a student housing complex with two dormitories on the RBC campus. RBC has accounted for the acquisition of the complex and its furniture and equipment as a capital lease, and therefore has recorded the facility and furnishings as depreciable capital assets and has also recorded a corresponding lease liability in long-term debt on the Statement of Net Assets. The outstanding balance of this capital lease as of June 30, 2016 is $21,848,348. RBC also recognized other long-term debt through the agreement with the RBCF for non-capitalized expenses. The outstanding balance of this other debt as of June 30, 2016 is $769,603.

Installment Purchases - consist of long-term obligations resulting from various contracts used to finance energy performance contracts and the acquisition of equipment. The length of purchase agreements range from two to fifteen years, and the interest rate charges are from 1.3 to 4.7 percent. The outstanding balance of installment purchases as of June 30, 2016 is $4,696,490.

FY 2016 Debt Issues – $10 million in 9d debt for the Integrative Wellness Center and estimated $2.2 M in 9c for Dormitory renovations.

Variable Rate Debt—The College currently has no outstanding variable rate debt.

Annual Debt Service Cost as Percentage of Total Operating Expense—The Debt Management Policy stipulates that maximum annual debt service cost as a percentage of total operating expense shall not exceed 10% and that debt issued in any given year shall be limited to an amount that allows the debt service to total operating expense ratio to remain at or below the 10% maximum. Information regarding this ratio follows:

	Debt Service	Operating Expense	Ratio
FY 2012	$22,124,765	$ 356,429,081	6.2%
FY 2013	$24,008,617	$ 373,058,466	6.4%
FY 2014	$22,678,576	$ 397,161,235	5.7%
FY 2015	$23,099,465	$ 415,981,223	5.6%
FY 2016 (e)	$26,053,952	$ 424,300,847	6.1%
FY 2017 (e)	$24,238,095	$ 432,786,864	5.6%
FY 2018 (e)	$24,022,943	$ 441,442,602	5.4%

September 21-23, 2016

- (e) The FY 2017 and 2018 ratios reflect an estimate for debt service and two percent annual growth in operating expense above FY 2015 levels. The FY 2016 operating expenses are based on an estimate as actual numbers for FY 2016 are not yet available. The FY 2016 debt service amounts are preliminary and unaudited.

The debt service ratio has remained reasonably stable over the past few years and as projected for FY 2017 and 2018 even while new debt is being issued. This is attributable to new debt being issued at an overall lower interest rate, systematic refunding of existing debt by the Commonwealth for lower interest rates and a steady increase in operating expenditures.

Debt Service authorized by the Board of Visitors and the Commonwealth but not yet issued—Debt supported capital projects previously authorized by the Board of Visitors and the Commonwealth for which the College has not yet requested that debt be issued includes the following:

Project	Authorized Debt Service
Athletic Facility Improvements	$ 6,529,176
Auxiliary Facility Improvements	$14,447,000
Improve Marshall-Wythe Law School	$ 5,200,000
Dormitory Renovations	$ 6,200,000

As of June 30, 2016, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science has no outstanding long-term debt nor have any new debt supported projects been authorized by the Board of Visitors or the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Economy/Capital Markets: The second quarter delivered reasonable returns across a variety of asset classes reversing much of the damage done in the first six weeks of the year. Markets shifted to expecting an even softer monetary stance amid global weakness, as expectations for additional Fed tightening were eliminated. The late-June U.K. vote to leave the European Union unleashed more political and economic uncertainty on the markets, leading to a rise in volatility and a further drop in bond yields. An expectation of even easier monetary postures by the world's central banks added fuel to the global sovereign-bond rally and pushed trillions of dollars of government bonds into negative-yield territory. A gradually steadying global economy helped beaten-down commodities bounce back during 2Q16, and most assets posted decent gains for the first half of 2016. The strong dollar was once again a headwind for equity returns in most foreign markets for U.S.-based investors. On the political front, Congress created a federal oversight board with authority to negotiate the restructuring of Puerto Rico's $70 billion in debt. The U.S. territory authorized the suspension of payments on its general obligation debt just before it was due to make payments totaling $1.9 billion on July 1.

For the quarter, the S&P 500 posted a 2.46% total return. The U.S. was once again the preferred market for global investors. International stocks as measured by the MSCI EAFE and the MSCI Emerging Market lagged the U.S. while returning -1.46% and 0.66% respectively. Japan (-8%) was among the worst returning developed equity markets in the second quarter, sinking amid a strengthening yen and a sluggish economy. The quarter was characterized by a flight to safety as investors shifted into defensive sectors and safe-haven investments. The telecommunication services and utilities sectors rose 7%, while consumer staples gained 5%. Information technology and consumer discretionary were the only sectors to post declines, losing 4% and 1%, respectively. Energy (+19%) was the strongest sector in 2Q16, rebounding amid a rally in oil prices. Commodities and commodity-producer equities continued their rallies in 2Q16.

Bonds posted positive returns for the second quarter in a row, as interest rates fell and credit spreads tightened. The 10-year U.S. Treasury yielded 1.78% to start the quarter and 1.49% at quarter's end. Long-duration and lower-credit-quality categories led, with some categories registering double-digit returns year to date. The low-rate environment continues to support corporate balance sheets as debt-servicing costs remain low relative to cash-flow receipts. High-yield bonds have benefited from higher oil prices and more favorable liquidity conditions. In the muni market, technical and fundamental factors continued to show strength, as the supply of new issuance remains below demand and tax revenue growth remains broad based. Overseas, the yield on Germany's benchmark 10-year note moved into negative territory for the first time in history, ending the quarter at -0.13%. Following the Brexit vote, Standard & Poor's revoked the U.K.'s AAA credit rating, citing the resulting political and economic uncertainty. S&P downgraded its assessment of the country's creditworthiness by two notches to AA.

FIRM: Wells Fargo Advisors is the trade name used by two separate registered broker-dealers: Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC., and Wells Fargo Financial Network, LLC, Members SIPC, non-bank affiliates of Wells Fargo & Company. Investment and Insurance products are: NOT FDIC-INSURED/NOT BANK-GUARANTEED/MAY LOSE VALUE.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST: To review important information about certain relationships and potential conflicts of interest that may exist between Wells Fargo Advisors, its affiliates, and the companies that are mentioned in this report, please visit the our research disclosure page at <https://www.wellsfargoadvisors.com/disclosures/research.htm> or call your Financial Advisor.

STATEMENT OF OPINION: This and/or the accompanying information was prepared by or obtained from sources which Wells Fargo Advisors believes to be reliable but does not guarantee its accuracy. Any opinions expressed or implied herein are not necessarily the same as those of Wells Fargo Advisors or its affiliates and are subject to change without notice. The report herein is not a complete analysis of every material fact in respect to any company, industry or security. Any market prices are only indications of market values and are subject to change. The material has been prepared or is distributed solely for information purposes and is not a solicitation or an offer to buy any security or instrument or to participate in any trading strategy. Additional information is available upon request.

ASSET CLASS SUITABILITY: Stocks of small companies are typically more volatile than stocks of larger companies. They often involve higher risks because they may lack the management expertise, financial resources, product diversification and competitive strengths to endure adverse economic conditions. High-yield, non-investment grade bonds are only suitable for aggressive investors willing to take greater risks, which could result in loss of principal and interest payments. Global/International investing involves risks not typically associated with US investing, including currency fluctuations, political instability, uncertain economic conditions and different accounting standards. Because the futures and commodity markets can be highly unpredictable – often swinging dramatically – investing in currency and commodities is not suitable for all investors. You may lose your entire investment, and in some cases, more than you invested.

PAST PERFORMANCE: Past performance is not an indication of future results.

Dow Jones Industrial Average - This index is comprised of 30 "blue-chip" US stocks selected for their history of successful growth and wide interest among investors. The DJIA represents about 20% of the total market value of all US stocks and about 25% of the NYSE market capitalization. It is a price-weighted arithmetic average, with the divisor adjusted to reflect stock splits and the occasional stock switches in the index.

NASDAQ Composite - A cap-weighted index comprised of all common stocks that are listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market (National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation system).

S&P 500 - A broad-based measurement of changes in stock market conditions based on the average performance of 500 widely held common stocks. This index does not contain the 500 largest companies nor the most expensive stocks traded in the U.S. While many of the stocks are among the largest, this index also includes many relatively small companies. This index consists of approximately 380 industrial, 40 utility, 10 transportation and 70 financial companies listed on U.S. market exchanges. Russell 1000 Growth - A segment of the Russell 1000 with a greater-than-average growth orientation. Companies in this index have higher price-to-book and price-earnings ratios, lower dividend yields and higher forecasted growth values than the Russell 1000 Value index.

Russell 1000 Value - Represents a segment of the Russell 1000 with a less-than-average growth orientation. Companies in this index have low price-to-book and price-earnings ratios, higher dividend yields and lower forecasted growth values than the Russell 1000 Growth Index.

Russell Mid Cap - The index consisting of the bottom 800 securities in the Russell 1000 as ranked by total market capitalization, and it represents over 35% of the Russell 1000 total market cap.

Russell 2000 - The 2000 smallest companies in the Russell 3000 index.

Russell 2000 Growth - A segment of the Russell 2000 with a greater-than-average growth orientation. Companies in this index have higher price-to-book and price-earnings ratios, lower dividend yields and higher forecasted growth values than the Russell 2000 Value index.

Russell 2000 Value - A segment of the Russell 2000 with a less-than-average growth orientation. Companies in this index have low price-to-book and price-earnings ratios, higher dividend yields and lower forecasted growth values than the Russell 2000 Growth index.

Russell 2500 - The index consisting of the bottom 500 stocks in the Russell 1000(as ranked by market capitalization) and all of the stocks in the Russell 2000. This index is intended to be used as a measure of small to medium/small stock performance, and it represents over 22% of the Russell 3000 total market cap.

MSCI EAFE - A market capitalization-weighted index representing all of the MSCI developed markets outside North America. It comprises 20 of the 22 countries in the MSCI World. These 20 countries include the 14 European countries in the MSCI Europe and the 6 Pacific countries in the MSCI Pacific. This index is created by aggregating the 20 different country indexes, all of which are created separately.

MSCI World - This market capitalization-weighted index represents all 22 of the MSCI developed markets in the world. It is created by aggregating the 22 different country indexes, all of which are created separately.

MSCI Emerging Markets Free (EMF) - A market capitalization-weighted index representing 26 of the emerging markets in the world. Several factors are used to designate whether a country is considered to be emerging vs. developed, the most common of which is Gross Domestic Product Per Capita. The "Free" aspect indicates that this index includes only securities that are allowed to be purchased by global investors. This index is created by aggregating the 26 different country indexes, all of which are created separately.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
RESOLUTION TO APPROVE RENAMING OF
JAMESTOWN COMPLEX DORMITORIES

Whereas, the College of William & Mary seeks to appropriately honor and remember those who have made a substantial contribution to the institution throughout its history; and

Whereas, William & Mary has undertaken efforts to better understand its involvement in slavery and segregation as well as its ongoing relationship with the African-American community through the Lemon Project, established in 2009; and

Whereas, the Task Force on Race and Race Relations, composed of students, faculty, staff, alumni and a member of the Board of Visitors, was formed by President Reveley in 2015 to, as part of its charge, examine how the racial climate is experienced by individual members of our community, and, to that end, met regularly over the past year and held six open forums on campus; and

Whereas, the Task Force has completed its report, with one of the most significant recommendations being to name university buildings in memory of African Americans important to William & Mary's past; and

Whereas, the President recommends renaming the two Jamestown Complex residence halls, which hold prominent placement on William & Mary's campus, to honor significant African American figures in William & Mary's history;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Visitors supports the recommendation of the President to rename the Jamestown Complex residence halls.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That one of the residence halls become Lemon Hall, named after an enslaved man owned by William & Mary in the late 18th century and the person for whom The Lemon Project is named. While very little is known about Lemon himself, his name represents an effort that has become a model for other universities looking to study, acknowledge and learn from their past history. In many ways, Lemon stands in the place of the known and unknown African Americans who helped to build, maintain and move the university forward.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the other residence hall become Hardy Hall, named after the late Dr. Carroll F.S. Hardy, the longtime Student Affairs administrator who was affectionately known on campus as “Dean Hardy,” and who for over 15 years worked tirelessly to increase the diversity of our student body through six summer enrichment programs for students in grades 8 to 12, by establishing the National Black Student Leadership Development Conference for college students, through the creation and nurturing of 15 multicultural student organizations, and by founding the Hulon Willis Association, a William & Mary organization devoted to African-American alumni. Dean Hardy was elected an honorary alumna of the College in 2012.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the Board directs the President and the administration to move forward with this renaming with all deliberate speed.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM & MARY

SUPPORT FOR SPORTS CLUBS

Whereas, over the past several months the Board of Visitors, in cooperation with the Vice President for Student Affairs, evaluated student interest in, and the benefits of, participation in Sports Clubs at William & Mary.

Whereas, this evaluation identified strong and continuing student interest in Sports Clubs and recognized that such participation develops individual student leadership and team building skills while serving as one way to relieve student stress.

Whereas, this evaluation revealed that cost can serve as a barrier to participation for some students.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Visitors of the College of William & Mary in Virginia endorses those budget and capital investments in support of Sports Clubs and other extra-curricular activities included in the FY 2017 budgets as recommended by the administration, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board approves an additional allocation of $57,000 in auxiliary enterprise funds as a direct supplement to the university's Sports Clubs. This action is expected to reduce the student share of funding for the Sports Club program from 79.3% to 65%.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE
RESOLUTION TO APPROVE
9C BOND SALE REQUEST

WHEREAS, there have been passed by the General Assembly of Virginia and signed by the Governor an act entitled "Commonwealth of Virginia Higher Educational Institutions Bond Act of 2016" (the "2016 Act"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Act, the Treasury Board of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Treasury Board") is authorized, by and with the consent of the Governor, to sell and issue bonds or bond anticipation notes of the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Commonwealth") for the purpose of providing funds, together with other available funds, for paying the cost of acquiring, constructing, renovating, enlarging, improving and equipping certain revenue-producing capital projects at certain institutions of higher learning of the Commonwealth and for paying issuance costs, reserve funds and other financing expenses (the "Financing Expenses"), all in accordance with the provisions of Section 9(c) of Article X of the Constitution of Virginia; and

WHEREAS, for Richard Bland College of William and Mary (the "Institution"), the revenue-producing capital project is the HSS Renovation to Residence Hall Space (the "Project"); and

WHEREAS, the Treasury Board is proposing to sell and issue bonds or bond anticipation notes pursuant to the Act for such revenue-producing capital projects, in one or more series;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT:

Section 1. The Board of Visitors of The College of William and Mary in Virginia (the "Board") requests the Treasury Board to sell and issue bonds (the "Bonds") or bond anticipation notes ("BANs") in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $ 2,650,000 to finance all or a portion of the costs of each Project plus Financing Expenses (for each individual Project, the "Individual Project Bonds" or "Individual Project Notes" and, collectively, the "Individual Project Borrowing" and for all Projects, the "Project Bonds" or "Project Notes" and, collectively, the "Project Borrowings"). The Individual Project Borrowings will be identified by amount by the State Treasurer upon issuance of any Bonds or BANs.

Section 2. With respect to each Project, the Board (a) covenants to fix, revise, charge and collect a housing fee and other rates, fees and charges, for or in connection with the use, occupation and services of such Project and (b) pledges such rates, fees and charges remaining after payment of (i) the expenses of operating such Project and (ii) the expenses related to all other activities funded by the housing fee ("Individual Project Net Revenues") to the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Individual Project Borrowing relating thereto. The Board further covenants that it will fix, revise, charge and collect such rates, fees and charges in such amounts so that Individual Project Net Revenues will at all times be sufficient to pay, when due, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the related Individual Project Borrowing and on any other obligations secured by such Individual Project Net Revenues (such payments collectively the "Required Payments"). Each Individual Project Borrowing shall be secured on a parity with other obligations secured by the Individual Project Net Revenues relating to such Individual Project Borrowing (other than any obligations secured by a prior right in Individual Project Net Revenues). Any Individual Project Net Revenues pledged herein in excess of the Required Payments for an Individual Project Borrowing may be used by the Institution for any other lawful purpose.

Section 3. It is hereby found, determined and declared that, based upon responsible engineering and economic estimates and advice of appropriate officials of the Institution, as shown on the Financial Feasibility Study attached hereto as Exhibit A [ RBC FFS Part I and II], with respect to each Project, the anticipated Individual Project Net Revenues pledged herein will be sufficient to pay the Required Payments for such Project so long as the aggregate amount of net debt service on the Individual Project Borrowing for such Project actually payable in any bond year does not exceed the amounts assumed in the Financial Feasibility Study relating thereto.

Section 4. The Board covenants that the Institution will furnish the Treasury Board its general purpose financial statements, within 30 days of their issuance and receipt, audited by a firm of certified public accountants or the Auditor of Public Accounts which shall include a schedule of revenues and expenditures for auxiliary enterprise systems. If Individual Project Net Revenues for any Project are insufficient to pay Required Payments for such Project during such period, the Institution shall provide evidence of a plan to generate Individual Project Net Revenues for such Project sufficient to make such Required Payments in the future.

Section 5. The Board covenants that so long as any of the Project Notes are outstanding, the Institution will pay to the State Treasurer, not less than 30 days before each interest payment date, an amount estimated by the State Treasurer to be due and payable on such date as interest on the Project Notes. The Board covenants that so long as any of the Project Bonds are outstanding, the Institution will pay to the State Treasurer, not less than 30 days before each interest or principal payment date, the amount certified by the State Treasurer to be due and payable on such date as principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Project Bonds.

Section 6. The Board covenants that the Institution will pay from time to time its proportionate share of all expenses incurred in connection with the sale and issuance of any series of Bonds that includes Project Bonds or Project Notes and all expenses thereafter incurred in connection with the Bonds, including without limitation the expense of calculating any rebate to the United States of the earnings derived from the investment of gross proceeds of the Bonds, all as certified by the State Treasurer to the Institution.

Section 7. The Board covenants that the Institution will not take or omit to take any action the taking or omission of which will cause the Bonds to be "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including regulations issued pursuant thereto (the "Code"), or otherwise cause interest on the Bonds to be includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes under existing laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Institution will pay from time to time its proportional share of any rebate to the United States of the earnings derived from the investment of the gross proceeds of the Bonds.

Section 8. The Board covenants that the Institution will proceed with due diligence to undertake and complete the Projects and that the Institution will spend all of the available proceeds derived from the sale of the Project Borrowings for costs associated with the Projects and appropriated for the Projects by the General Assembly.

Section 9. The Board covenants that the Institution will not permit the proceeds of each Individual Project Borrowing to be used in any manner that would result in (a) 5% or more of such proceeds being used in a trade or business carried on by any person other than a governmental unit, as provided in Section 141(b) of the Code, (b) 5% or more of such proceeds being used with respect to any output facility within the meaning of Section 141(b)(4) of the Code, or (c) 5% or more of such proceeds being used directly or indirectly to make or finance loans to any persons other than a governmental unit, as provided in Section 141(c) of the Code. The Institution need not comply with such covenants if the Institution obtains the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that such covenants need not be complied with to prevent the interest on the Bonds from being includable in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 10. The Board covenants that for so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding the Institution will not enter into any operating lease, management contract or similar agreement with any person or entity, other than a state or local governmental unit, for all or any portion of any of the Projects without first obtaining the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that entering into such agreement will not cause the interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 11. The Board covenants that for so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding, the Institution will not sell or dispose of all or any part of any of the Projects without first obtaining the written approval of the State Treasurer and an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel acceptable to the Treasury Board that such sale or disposition will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes.

Section 12. The officers of the Institution are authorized and directed to execute and deliver all certificates and instruments and to take all such further action as may be considered necessary or desirable in connection with the sale and issuance of the Bonds.

Section 13. The Board acknowledges that the Treasury Board will rely on the representations and covenants set forth herein in issuing the Bonds, that such covenants are critical to the security for the Bonds and the exclusion of the interest on the Bonds from the gross income of the owners thereof for federal income tax purposes, that the Board will not repeal, revoke, rescind or amend any of such covenants without first obtaining the written approval of the Treasury Board, and that such covenants will be binding upon the Board so long as any of the Bonds are outstanding.

Section 14. This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption.

The undersigned Secretary of the Board of Visitors of The College of William and Mary in Virginia does hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Board of Visitors duly convened and held on September 23, 2016, at which a quorum was present and voting, and that such resolution is now in full force and effect.

Key Terms

9(c) Debt – Refers to bonds or other obligations authorized under the provisions of Article X, Section 9(c) of the Constitution of Virginia. Such debt is secured by (i) net project revenues and (ii) the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth (i.e., a general obligation pledge). Consequently, only revenue-producing capital projects are eligible (e.g., dormitories, dining facilities, etc.). Authorization for 9(c) bonds requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly. Further, prior to its authorization by the General Assembly, and again prior to its issuance, the Governor must certify that the anticipated net revenues of the project will be sufficient to pay principal and interest on the debt. The FFS is a critical part of this determination. 9(c) bonds are issued by the Treasury Board.

9(d) Debt – Refers to bonds or other obligations authorized for issuance under the provisions of Article X, Section 9(d) of the Constitution of Virginia. Such debt may or may not be secured by state funds. Project authorization must be provided in the Appropriation Act or other Act of the General Assembly. A financial feasibility study should be completed for any project expected to be supported in whole or in part from project revenues or general revenues of the agency or institution. This includes projects to be financed under the Virginia College Building Authority (VCBA) Pooled Bond Program. The project may or may not be revenue producing. Capital leases and other obligations are included in this category.

FFS's for 9(d) projects must be submitted to State Council of Higher Education for Virginia by August 15th of each year. The State Council of Higher Education shall identify the impact of all projects requested by the institutions of higher education on the current and projected costs to students in institutions of higher education and the impact of the project on the institution's need for student financial assistance. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia shall report such information to the Secretary of Finance and the Chairman of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees no later than October 1 of each year.

Capital Lease – Capital leases are considered long-term obligations for accounting purposes. The State Comptroller defines capital leases as leases which meet any one (or more) of the following criteria:

- 1) transfer of ownership of the property to the lessee at the end of the lease term;
- 2) bargain purchase option at the end of the lease term;
- 3) lease term equal to 75% or more of the estimated economic life of the leased property; and
- 4) present value of the net minimum lease payments equal to or exceeding 90% of the fair market value of the property.

Capitalized Interest – Interest to be paid on the bonds during the period of construction that is financed as part of the bond issue. Capitalizing interest increases the overall cost of borrowing, but may be necessary in cases where project revenues are to be used to pay debt service. Conversely, where revenues are already being collected (i.e., a fee or fee increase has already been implemented), capitalized interest may not be appropriate.

General Revenue Pledge – A pledge of all general operating revenues of the institution of higher education (as opposed to a pledge of a specific revenue or revenue stream). The general revenue pledge is generally stronger than a specific revenue pledge. A general revenue pledge is required for the VCBA Pooled Bond Program. General operating revenues include: total gross university sponsored overhead, unrestricted endowment income, tuition and fees, indirect cost recoveries, auxiliary enterprise revenues, general fund appropriations and other revenues not required by law to be used for another purpose.

Incremental Annual Operating Expenses – The increase in annual operating costs attributable to the project.

Non-recurring costs – One-time project costs (e.g., land acquisition, special utility fees, permits, etc.) required for project completion.

Private Use – means any use by a trade or business that is carried on by persons or entities other than state or local governmental entities. Such use could involve ownership, management, service or incentive payment contracts, research agreements, leases, subleases, loans, or any other arrangement that conveys special legal entitlements or economic benefit to the non-governmental entity from the beneficial use of the project.

Reserve Fund – An amount set aside, usually from project revenues or bond proceeds, to mitigate the impact of fluctuations or interruptions in the flow of revenues to pay debt service. The presence of a reserve fund may enhance the credit. For the purposes of the feasibility study, reserve funds are generally for debt service and are funded from project or institutional revenues. 9(c) projects are expected to generate sufficient net revenues to fund a reserve at an amount equal to approximately 10% of the amount financed.

Section 1 - General Information – To be completed for all projects.

1. Describe the project in sufficient detail so that an uninformed reader has a clear understanding of the project. Indicate whether the project involves new construction or is a renovation/addition to an existing facility.

Renovate: Humanities / Social Sciences Building

Supports the design, construction, and repurposing of the HSS Building (originally a hospital and configured well for repurposing to residential life) to enable a cost-effective and timely expansion of our residential facilities. The net usable area of HSS is 16,591 sq.ft., which will accommodate 80 to 100 additional students.

2. Describe how the project is essential to fulfilling the institution's/agency's mission. What alternatives are available?

Richard Bland College's Strategic Plan, RBC-19, calls for an enrollment of 2,000 students by 2019. Enrollment growth increased 8.29% in FY14, 15% in FY15, and 36% in FY 2016. Our brand recognition continues to gain strength in markets outside of our traditional three county territory. This can be seen by the increase of residential students who live outside of 30 miles. Last fall we had a waiting list of over 60 students, and currently, our waiting list is over 80 students (who will not be able to attend our College without housing). RBC needs to be able to meet the residential living needs of its growing student population.

3. Was the project part of the agency's capital outlay submission? If so, include a copy of the project narrative.

Yes. A copy of the project narrative is attached.

4. Describe the effect the project will have on those students or users who will financially support the project.

This project will make it possible for these additional out of area students to attend Richard Bland. Without housing, students from over 30 miles away will not find the college an attractive option.

5. Describe the probable effects of the project on the community and environment, including changes to the value of property as a result of the project.

With the completion of the new Social Science, Humanities, and English building in the fall of 2015, HSS will no longer be an E&G building. This historic structure will become dormant space unless repurposed. Using this space to meet the needs of our growing student population is an innovative approach to utilizing RBC's current assets to quickly address the urgent housing situation. With this building occupied for residential students, we will continue to have all assets fully utilized.

6. Explain how the project and its impact have been conveyed to local officials and their reaction/response.

Local officials are fully supportive of Richard Bland's commitment to educational excellence and, since the first dormitories opened on campus seven years ago, have recognized that the stability of the institution going forward is dependent upon its ability to attract and retain a significant resident population. In discussions with our local foundation board, our administration has found them to be excited about the project.

7. Describe any other positive or negative aspects of the project.

The project will allow RBC to pursue innovative approaches to residential education. Our current six-year plan includes the concept of beginning a new Work College model—the only one of its kind in Virginia—which would, in turn, help Richard Bland to continue its tradition of innovation.

8. Briefly describe the financing proposal. Indicate if this proposal is for a bond financing, a capital lease, or some alternative financing arrangement.

Bond funding.

9. Are specific revenues planned to support debt service or lease payments? (If so, you will need to complete Section 3.)

The facility will generate revenue from students paying the residential fee to stay in the dormitory. It will additionally produce revenue as it will increase the student population on campus, driving additional revenue in food service and in state aid based on increased FTE. Please see the pro forma, attached.

10. Describe how the financing fits within your debt management policy?

As our policy recommends cautious use of all funds, a project such as this, with a clearly self-supporting method of debt service, is clearly within our own guidelines.

11. Provide your institution's debt ratios as estimated under your debt management policy:

- (a) as of June 30, 2016, including any authorized and unissued estimated debt; and
(b) including the financing of this project.

a) We currently service $1.185 million as debt service, which is approximately 7% of our operation budget—well within our guidelines.

b) This project, which totals only $2.65 million, will not change this percentage significantly: a twenty-year repayment would increase our debt service to 1.35 million, or 8% of our operating budget.

Private Use

12. Will any person or entity other than the governmental unit provide (directly or indirectly) any part of debt service on the portion of the bonds issued for the project? For example, will a private foundation or federal agency be required (or expected) to make an annual contribution toward the payment of debt service.

☐ Yes ☒ No. If yes, please identify the person or entity and the percent of debt service to be provided.

13. Do you anticipate that any person or entity other than the state institution/agency will have a contractual right, different from the rights available to the general public or students, to use any part of the project or to use or buy goods or services produced at the project? For instance, have you contracted parking spaces in a parking deck to a nearby corporate office?

☐ Yes ☒ No If yes, briefly summarize the planned contractual agreement.

14. Do you contemplate any part of the project being managed or operated by any person or entity other than the state institution/agency under a management or service contract, incentive payment or other "privatized" arrangement? Examples include contracts for food service, parking service, dormitory management, bookstore management, etc.

☐ Yes ☒ No If yes, summarize the anticipated contractual arrangement (i.e., contract term, renewal options, compensation arrangements, etc.).

Note: These arrangements may impact whether the project is eligible for tax-exempt financing. Once tax-exempt bonds have been issued, entering into this type of contract or arrangement may affect the bond's tax-exempt status. So long as the bonds are outstanding, the terms of any such arrangement must be reviewed and approved by the State Treasurer prior to the execution of any contract.

Section 2 – Cost Information (complete for all projects)

15. Do you anticipate the need for capitalized interest on any bond financing (i.e., to pay interest during construction)? If so, explain.

Yes. Project generated revenue will be used to pay debt service, no other revenue will be available to do so.

16. Itemize the capital costs of the project. Estimate the costs of issuance at 2% of the cost of the project. Please subtotal project costs net of the 2% cost of issuance and then show a gross cost of project including the cost of issuance. Note that the total cost should be used as the AMOUNT BORROWED field of the worksheet. Attach the CO-2 estimate or further estimate of project cost, if available. Feasibility Study Attached

17. What is the anticipated useful life of the project?

50 years

18. List and describe any initial Non-Recurring Costs related to the project and the source of funding for each of these items.

None.

19. List and estimate the Incremental Annual Operating Expenses. Provide any supporting documentation and illustrate how your estimate was made. These expenses include personnel costs, utilities, contractual services, supplies and materials, indirect costs, equipment, etc.

20 years	3.15%	3.15%

10 years	2.50%	2.65%
7 years	N/A	2.40%

Section 3 Revenue Information. (Complete for all revenue-producing projects)

20. Describe the Revenue Sources that will be used for payment of debt service and the expenses associated with these revenues. Consider what other expenses are planned to be supported by the revenues, and how much revenue will actually be available for debt service.

The repayment of debt service will be made from the revenues generated by the facility itself, as students will be paying the institution the housing fee for their dormitory spaces. The revenues generated by the facility are not earmarked for any other use at this time.

21. If revenues will be derived from a group of similar facilities (a system) and an increase in system revenues will be used to support the debt, provide justification for any system contribution and any marginal increase in system-wide fees.

The debt for this facility will be supported by its own revenues.

22. If revenues will be derived from just one facility of several similar facilities in a campus system, show all fees for all similar facilities and justify any differential in pricing between the facilities.

Not applicable.

23. Will project revenues or revenues pledged to the payment of debt service be available prior to completion of the project? Describe the timing of revenues and when they will be available and sufficient to begin servicing the debt.

No. Revenues will begin to be available after the project is occupied by students who are paying housing fees.

24. What studies have been completed to demonstrate the demand for the facility and the reliability of the revenue stream? (Attach copies if available.)

As mentioned above, we have been turning students away from housing and therefore from the College due to our inability to offer them housing. This trend has been on the upswing for the past two years, and given our 20% increase in freshmen this fall, promises to be even greater going forward. We have our waiting list of 80 this year even after adding 48 additional beds to our current facility.

25. If any portion of the revenues are already pledged or otherwise committed to other debt service payments, provide a schedule of debt service payments (by issue). Identify the portion of the revenue source that is committed or being used to pay debt

Not applicable.

26. If any revenues are projected to increase, explain how the projections were calculated. Do not use an automatic growth rate.

Not applicable.

27. If institutional reserves are to be used to service the debt, include the source of funds, balances for the last five years, and impact on future balances. Identify the authorization for using these funds to pay debt service and other costs.

Not applicable.

28. If any amounts currently used for debt service are expected to be available and used for debt service on this project (i.e., the existing debt will be retired), provide the project(s), the bond series, and the annual amount to be available. Address the status of the existing facility's physical condition and plans for repair or maintenance. Conversely, explain why any such amounts scheduled to be available are not planned for use for debt service on this project.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE

2016-2022 SIX-YEAR PLAN UPDATE

WHEREAS, the mission of Richard Bland College is to prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of the College of William and Mary and to advance the Commonwealth's priorities through strategic partnerships, specialized programming, and scalable innovation; and

WHEREAS, the College's Six-Year Plan is rooted in the RBC-19 Strategic Plan and the goals set forth in the Governor's Enterprise Strategic Priorities for Building a New Virginia Economy, the Higher Education Opportunity Act (TJ21), and the SCHEV strategic plan; and

WHEREAS, it is important to the vitality of the Commonwealth and the diversity of its higher education system for the College to continue to provide a distinctive higher education option while ensuring that this education remains accessible and affordable to the citizens of the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the College has determined those expenditures necessary to support and enhance its instructional, research, student service, and administrative operations; prioritized those expenditures; and recommended funding through a combination of Commonwealth, College, and reallocated funds; and

WHEREAS, the College continues to evaluate opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its academic and administrative programs and activities, aware that fulfilling the goals of the Plan will require a combination of such efforts, in addition to adequate tuition revenue, state support and increased philanthropy;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary approves expenditures proposed in the College's updated Six-Year Plan and that the updated Six-Year Plan be prepared and submitted according to the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011 and subsequent guidance from the State Council of Higher Education.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The Board recognizes that on August 26, 2016, the Governor of Virginia, at a joint meeting of the House Appropriations, House Finance, and Senate Finance committees of the General Assembly, identified a general fund revenue shortfall of approximately $1.5 billion reflecting an FY 2016 shortfall in revenues and transfers of $278 million and reduced revenue projections in both years of the 2016-18 biennium. The immediate impact on the college is to eliminate support for the state's share of the FY 2017 proposed 3%, merit-based salary increase for faculty and staff. To date, institutions of higher education have not been asked to develop budget reduction plans. When and if such a request will come is unknown.

RICHARD BLAND COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
SIX-YEAR PLAN (2016-18 through 2022)

Richard Bland College of William and Mary provides an outstanding education for Virginia students as the Commonwealth's only residential junior college, providing an extremely affordable and rigorous academic experience as students prepare to transfer to four-year institutions in pursuit of gainful employment and fulfilling lives. Going forward, we intend to maintain and enhance an extraordinary form of education, offered by no other institution in the Commonwealth and few others in the country. In developing our six-year plan, we build on existing strengths, preserving an exceptional public educational experience while contributing to the Commonwealth's educational and economic development needs.

INSTITUTIONAL MISSION*The Richard Bland College of William and Mary Mission Statement:

To prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of William and Mary and to expand access to college credentials through strategic partnerships, specialized programming, and scalable innovation.

The Richard Bland College of William and Mary Vision Statement:

As an extension of William and Mary, Richard Bland College is in the vanguard of learning-outcomes based liberal arts education for university transfer and a model for testing and applying outcomes-driven solutions in higher education.

Goals:

In fulfilling its mission, Richard Bland College of William and Mary adopts the following specific goals:

- to attract students with outstanding potential from diverse backgrounds;
- to prepare students to continue their education at a 4 year institution with an innovative and rigorous liberal arts and sciences curriculum that encourages creativity, independent thought, and intellectual depth, breadth, and curiosity;

- to use predictive analytics to proactively identify students at risk of failing and proactively intervene with comprehensive support services coordinated by a learner mentor support; and
- to instill in its students an appreciation for the human condition, a concern for the public well-being, and a life-long commitment to learning.

Priority 1— ESE@RBC

Over the course of the last year and with agreement between the College and IBM-Portal, the College has ceased its partnership with the company and has brought in-house the development of a comprehensive student-centric engagement program that allows dedicated learner mentors (LMs), faculty and other highly involved staff to intervene intelligently at every stage in the student's educational journey. Supported by key systems (e.g., CANVAS, Drop-out Detective, Banner) as well as internally developed predictive analytics, the ultimate goal of the program is to operate in an efficient, data-driven environment that allows everyone involved to react in a proactive manner to keep the student on track from the crucially important first semester through graduation. To ensure the success of this now internal project, we have hired a highly qualified Chief Innovation, Strategy, and Information Technology Officer (CISIO) to build the links and strategies between all sections of the campus that impact this initiative.

The first semester of a student's educational journey is the most critical and it is vital that students begin on the right track. Guidance practitioners are new positions at the College that analyze placement test scores, as well as student interest and plans, to get students placed into pre-set schedules that are designed for success. Increasing enrollment in will require additional investment in the guidance practitioner positions. We had significant success with our pilot year, and have now hired four additional learner mentors and extended the programming to our sophomore students to ensure an end to end support process in transitioning them to their next school.

Priority 2—Mission Aligned Academic Portfolio

Through market/gap analysis and strategic partnerships, the College will expand its academic portfolio. Planned areas of growth are in online delivery, market-driven curricula and applied degree clusters (stackable credentials). Each strategic partner will lend resources and expertise to the development of a new set of academic program offerings. The vast majority of jobs are in small businesses, so the College seeks to drive entrepreneurship and economic development through the creation of a robust cluster of curricula in the following areas

The College will develop an e-Portfolio program to help students track their progress and development as learners. As one of three Virginia colleges approved by the United States Department of Education as an “experimental site” for prior-learning assessment and competency based education (CBE), the College will test portfolio-based assessment to accelerate the time to degree for students with certain competencies coming into the program and to reduce the redundancy that is built into the developmental education program.

1. Work-Learning-Service (WLS) College Initiative: RBC will investigate joining the Work College Consortium and beginning a pilot program for local, middle-income students. Work Colleges offer students enhanced learning opportunities by integrating Work, Learning and Service throughout their college experience. Students earn a valuable degree plus important life and professional skills.

The Work Colleges approach helps to develop advanced skills and key attributes like critical thinking, problem solving, teamwork, decision-making, leadership, professionalism and a quest for lifelong learning. Graduates go on to be effective and responsible leaders in business, community and government. They're thoughtful and smart—graduating with considerably less college debt than most of their peers. Member Colleges help students graduate with limited debt.

2. Behavioral Science and Information Technology (Cyber Security, Computer Modeling, Simulation and Gaming) – Building on a special appropriation from the Commonwealth in 2014, these programs will focus on the technical side of design, allowing students to halt or prevent cyber-attacks.

3. Environmental Science

4. Bio-Science

All of these programs will provide students with marketable skills in niche industries and economies. The core competencies of entrepreneurship will allow for a common curriculum and programs of study that will provide students with the hands-on experience and stackable credentials necessary to secure gainful employment. The Academic Innovation and Resource Center will provide the workspace needed for meaningful and productive collaboration between curriculum designers and strategic partners, and it will serve as an innovation center to drive continuous improvement in learning outcomes.

Priority 3—Business Intelligence and Process Alignment

The College remains focused on its key strategic planning goals of 1) developing and implementing financial and sustainability master plans; 2) collecting, analyzing, disseminating, and utilizing pertinent performance-related information to drive quality and continuous improvements; 3) developing and implementing revenue enhancement plans; and 4) deploying financial, physical, IT and human resources in direct support of the mission and vision.

The College has consistently reduced its overhead costs over the past several years with Institution and OandM costs reduced from 57% FY 12 to 38% FY15 and leveling out at 41% for FY16. Even as we reach a state of equilibrium for institutional and OandM spend, the College continues to focus on spans of controls, automating processes, and IT virtualization.

The College continues to drive auxiliary revenue through multiple uses of its campus facilities, with a focus on partnering with the surrounding community to more broadly advance the education mission. Richard Bland College hosted Jacob's Ladder this summer, a month long overnight program for over 60 high performing youth aged 10 through 14 from economically challenged backgrounds. They were very impressed with our campus facilities and support programming and will be returning next summer. Tapping opportunities for increased brand awareness and also to raise auxiliary revenues through campus utilization by external entities and partners is a priority. This summer we hosted multiple campus events including a Music in the Grove series, weddings, company picnics, a boy scout day camp, and catering events.

Summer use of residence halls that opened in 2008 remains a largely untapped opportunity, but we did host Jacob's Ladder during their stay and another retreat program over a long weekend. The College also sees opportunities for new Equine Center programs to grow exponentially as RBC remains one of only two institutions nationwide with EAGALA-certified programs. In addition, utilizing residence halls in the summer to provide housing for summer school students (at reduced costs) to enable on-time degree completion is planned. We ran a pilot program this summer with one of RBC's athletic programs to see how it would work. They assisted with the Jacob's Ladder camp and attended some classes, and overall was a successful pilot.

IT focus will be on improving the reliability and consistency of infrastructure, improved continuity of operations, document management (digitize, store, retrieve transcripts, etc), and automating and simplifying critical IT processes. The College will continue to move infrastructure to cloud-based solutions as makes sense and improve IT security functions.

KEY CAPITAL PROJECTS (2016-2022)

In April 2015, the Board of Visitors approved a six-year capital plan. Key capital projects include:

- Maintenance Reserve and Umbrella Maintenance Projects
Provides continued funding of major repair and replacement projects in facilities across campus including roof repairs and building systems repairs.
- Renovate: Library Expansion
An expanded concept of the library as a modern tool for fostering innovation in scholarship while also providing renewed space for study and collaboration, calls for a re-design of our existing structure and mission. Our Center for Teaching and Learning will provide a unique cultural center that inspires, supports, and contextualizes our users' engagement with scholarship. A flexible, equipped space will inspire connected learning for a networked world through faculty development, student engagement, communities of practice, and technology enhanced active learning. A renewed building filled with natural light, innovative media and displays of artwork and views of campus will engage imaginations and inspire conversation and reflection. This plan calls for approximately 10,000 sq. ft. of library resources, 7,000 sq. ft. of Information Technology Services and data center and 7,000 sq. ft. for Academic Innovation and training. A new elevator will be necessary to access this change in space design. We were approved by the general assembly to proceed with planning for this project for the 2016-18 biennium. In addition, we have started renovations inside the current library space to create a student support center in which is housed the learner mentors, admission, counseling, etc.
- Renovate: Humanities / Social Sciences Building
Supports the design, construction, and repurposing the HSS Building (which was originally a hospital and is configured well for repurposing to residential life) will enable a cost effective and timely expansion of our residential life facilities. The net usable area of HSS is 16,591 square feet which will allow for an additional 80 to 100 residential beds. The general assembly approved construction of this project with the sale of 9c bonds. Construction has begun as of July 1, 2016 and is anticipated to be complete for fall 2017 student occupancy.

VIRGINIA INSTITUTE OF MARINE SCIENCE
RESOLUTION TO APPROVE PROPERTY ACQUISITION:
6 Riverview Avenue

WHEREAS, from time to time, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science has the opportunity to purchase property that is adjacent to the campus, of strategic interest to the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, at a bargain price to the institution, or for some other equally compelling reason; and

WHEREAS, the 2006 Management Agreement (the "Agreement"), governed by the restructured Higher Education Financial and Administrative Operations Act of 2005, Chapter 4.10 of the Title 23 of the Code of Virginia, as renewed in 2009 and 2013, allows the Board of Visitors to use its non-general funds to purchase property without the approval of the Governor, the General Assembly, or any other Commonwealth agency; and

WHEREAS, the Agreement authorized the Virginia Institute of Marine Science to establish its own policies and procedures for the purchase of property, using the Commonwealth's due diligence policies as a model template; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science has been negotiating with the owners of 6 Riverview Avenue and have come to agreement on purchase price; and

WHEREAS, the property is adjacent to Virginia Institute of Marine Science holdings and of strategic interest to the Virginia Institute of Marine Science to allow for future expansion of the Eastern Shore Campus by providing septic drain field capacity outside of the 100 year Special Flood Hazard area; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science is performing its due diligence activity on the property and has determined the land is in good condition and also is in the process of obtaining a secure title; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science has determined to use indirect cost recoveries, a non-general fund source to purchase the land; and

WHEREAS, the Dean/Director of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science recommends approval of the property acquisition, with an anticipated closing date in the Fall 2016;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Rector and the Board of Visitors of The College of William and Mary in Virginia, that approval is given to the Virginia Institute of Marine Science to purchase 6 Riverview Avenue at the agreed-upon price, and in accordance with all authorities, policies, and procedures in force and necessary under the Agreement; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to and in furtherance of Chapter 3.2, Title 23 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended (the “Act”), the Virginia College Building Authority (the “Authority”) developed a program (the “Program”) to purchase debt instruments issued by public institutions of higher education in the Commonwealth of Virginia (“Participating Institutions” and each a “Participating Institution”) to finance or refinance projects of capital improvement (“Capital Projects” and each a “Capital Project”) included in a bill passed by a majority of each house of the General Assembly of Virginia (the “General Assembly”);

WHEREAS, under the Program the Authority from time to time issues its Educational Facilities Revenue Bonds (Public Higher Education Financing Program) (“Pooled Bonds”) to finance the purchase or refunding of debt instruments issued by Participating Institutions to finance or refinance Capital Projects;

WHEREAS, if a Participating Institution desires to finance or refinance a Capital Project through the Program it must enter into a loan agreement with the Authority, under which: (i) the Participating Institution will issue its promissory note pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 23 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, to evidence a loan to it by the Authority; (ii) the Authority will agree to issue Pooled Bonds and use proceeds thereof to purchase the promissory note; (iii) the Participating Institution will agree to use proceeds of Pooled Bonds, loaned to it and received in exchange for its promissory note, to finance or refinance the Capital Project and to not take actions that may jeopardize any federal tax-exempt status of interest on Pooled Bonds allocable to financing or refinancing the Capital Project; and (iv) the Participating Institution will agree to make payments under the promissory note in sums sufficient to pay, together with certain administrative and arbitrage rebate payments, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on such Pooled Bonds;

General Assembly: the Renovate/Expand Zable Stadium (204-18112) and Replace Busch Field Turf (204-17809) (collectively, the "Project"); and

WHEREAS, the Board desires to designate certain Institution officers (i) delegated the authority to approve the forms of and to execute and deliver the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto, and any other documents necessary or desirable in connection with financing or refinancing costs of the Project through and participation in the Program; and (ii) responsible for monitoring post-issuance compliance with covenants of the Institution related to maintaining any federal tax-exempt status of interest on Pooled Bonds.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD:

Section 1. The Project is hereby designated to be undertaken and financed or refinanced by the Authority and, accordingly, the President, Provost, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, and Chief Financial Officer (the "Authorized Officers") are each hereby delegated and invested with full power and authority to approve the forms of the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise), and any pledge to the payment of the Note and any amendment thereto of total gross university sponsored overhead, unrestricted endowment income, tuition and fees, indirect cost recoveries, auxiliary enterprise revenues, general and nongeneral fund appropriations and other revenues not required by law or previous binding contract to be devoted to some other purpose, restricted by a gift instrument for another purpose or excluded from such pledge as provided in the Loan Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

Section 2. Subject to the provisions of Section 3 hereof, the Authorized Officers are each hereby delegated and invested with full power and authority to execute, deliver and issue, on behalf of the Institution, (a) the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise), with approval of such documents in accordance with Section 1 hereof evidenced conclusively by the execution and delivery of the respective document, and (b) any other documents, instruments or certificates as may be deemed necessary or desirable to finance or refinance costs of the Project through and participate in the Program, and to further carry out the purposes and intent of this resolution. The Authorized Officers are authorized and directed to take such steps and deliver such certificates in connection with delivery of the Note, and any amendment thereto, as may be required under any existing obligations, including bond resolutions relating to any outstanding general revenue pledge bonds, and to notify Virginia Department of Treasury representatives serving as Authority staff at least 60 days in advance of a pledge of any amounts pledged to the payment of the Note in accordance with Section 1 hereof to, or as security for, the payment of any other Institution obligations issued or entered into after the date hereof for so long as the Note and any amendments thereto remain outstanding.

Section 3. The authorizations given above as to the approval, execution, delivery and issuance of the Loan Agreement, the Note and any amendments thereto (in connection with any refunding of Pooled Bonds financing or refinancing the Project or otherwise) are subject to the following parameters: (a) the principal amount to be paid under the Note allocable to any component of the Project, together with the principal amount of any other indebtedness with respect to such component, shall not be greater than the amount authorized for such component by the General Assembly plus amounts needed to fund issuance costs, original issue discount, other financing (including without limitation refunding) expenses and any other increase permitted by law; (b) the aggregate principal amount of the Note shall in no event exceed $4,334,387 as the same may be so increased; (c) the aggregate interest rate payable under the Note shall not exceed a "true" or "Canadian" interest cost more than 50 basis points higher than the interest rate for "AA" rated securities with comparable maturities, as reported by Thomson Municipal Market Data (MMD) or another comparable service or index, as of the date that the interest rates are determined, taking into account any original issue discount or premium; (d) the weighted average maturity of the principal payments due under the Note shall not exceed 20 years after the original issue date of the Note; (e) the last principal payment date under the Note shall not extend beyond the reasonably expected weighted economic life of the Project; and (f) subject to the foregoing, the actual amount, interest rates, principal maturities, and date of the Note shall be approved by an Authorized Officer, as evidenced by the execution thereof.

Section 4. The Board acknowledges that if there is a failure to make, as and when due, any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on any promissory note issued by the Institution as a Participating Institution to the Authority under the Program, including without limitation the Note and any amendments thereto, the State Comptroller is authorized under the Program and Section 23-30.29:3 of the Code of Virginia of 1950, as amended, to charge against appropriations available to the Institution all future payments of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such promissory note when due and payable and to make such payments to the Authority or its designee, so as to ensure that no future default will occur on such promissory note.

Section 5. The Board agrees that if the Authority determines the Institution as a Participating Institution shall be subject to continuing disclosure obligations under Rule 15c2-12 of the federal Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to any Pooled Bonds, (a) an Authorized Officer shall, and is hereby authorized and directed to, enter into a continuing disclosure undertaking in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Authority, and (b) the Institution will comply with the provisions and disclosure obligations contained therein.

Section 6. The Board designates the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration to be responsible for implementing procedures to monitor post-issuance compliance with covenants in any loan agreement between the Institution as a Participating Institution and the Authority, including the Loan Agreement and any amendments thereto, related to maintaining tax-exempt status for federal income tax purposes of interest on any Pooled Bonds, including without limitation monitoring the use of any portion of all Capital Projects for the Institution financed or refinanced with such Pooled Bonds and compliance with any applicable federal income tax remedial action requirements in connection with certain

RESOLUTION TO APPROVE 2016 MASTER PLAN
OF JAMES MONROE'S HIGHLAND

The President's Commission for James Monroe (the Monroe Commission) and the Monroe Legacy Working Group (appointed by Rector Stottlemeyer) have developed a 2016 Master Plan (the "Plan") to ensure the future of James Monroe's Highland.

With the rediscovery of the archaeological remains of the original 1799 Monroe main house, and the identification of the standing house as the 1818 Presidential Guest House, the understanding of the historic site has fundamentally changed. With this knowledge, the master plan intends to guide development of the property along three primary uses: 1) historic site visitation (tourism); 2) private use of the facilities (for rental revenue); and 3) engagement with William & Mary and other potential communities in James Monroe's legacy through ways that are still being defined.

The master plan, completed by Waterstreet Studio of Charlottesville, creates a re-alignment of visitor experience of the historic core of the property through two perpendicular axes, providing a more intentional visitor arrival sequence, offering visitor amenities, and expanding the potential for visitor exploration and discovery of Monroe's legacy and the history of the site.

A core feature of the master plan is the focus on archaeological excavation on the site of the 1799 main house, to be covered with a pavilion. The plan also envisions the relocation of the Massey house, which will be placed near the 2011 events barn.

The master plan surrounds the historic core with ways for visitors to engage with the landscape, including a set of walking trails within the property, and connector trails to neighboring historic sites Monticello and Morven. It is intended that these trails engage visitors with both history and ecology through signage as well as access to the property.

Conservation agriculture is suggested for areas around the historic core, and natural grasses are used near a sensitively expanded parking area.

The events portion of the property is supported by new outdoor events spaces, including a grassy amphitheater.

The master plan is a framework for the development of Highland in its next phase. It has left many points undefined, such as the size, scope, and architectural details of a visitor pavilion. It is intended that these develop along with the availability of funds for the project.

The Plan is incorporated herein by reference and can be found on the James Monroe Highland and the William & Mary websites.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors hereby endorses and adopts the “2016 Highland Master Plan;” and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board directs the College administration to oversee implementation and ensure compliance with the Plan; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the Plan can only be changed by vote of the Board of Visitors.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

2016-18 SIX-YEAR PLAN UPDATE

WHEREAS, the College of William & Mary has a long tradition of providing an excellent liberal arts education to the citizens of the Commonwealth and the nation.

WHEREAS, the Governor's Commission on Higher Education has indicated "the Commonwealth's commitment . . . to having a distinctive 'public ivy' at William & Mary;"

WHEREAS, consistent with the requirement of the Higher Education Opportunity Act (the Act), William & Mary developed its 2016-18 Six-Year Plan rooted in this commitment, the goals set out in its Strategic Plan, and the objectives of the Act. This Six-year Plan was approved by the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary in September, 2015.

WHEREAS, the Board of Visitors remains committed to the William & Mary Promise as a business model to enhance the quality of its education while improving predictability and affordability for in-state undergraduate students.

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth's planning process requires an update to the six year-plan on an annual basis, incorporating funding actions by the Commonwealth as reflected in the FY 2017 budget approved by each institution's Board of Visitors.

WHEREAS, the university has reviewed those expenditures necessary to support and enhance its instructional, research, student service, and administrative operations, prioritized those expenditures, and recommended funding through a combination of Commonwealth, College, and reallocated revenue.

WHEREAS, the university continues to evaluate opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its academic/administrative programs and activities.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary, approves the College's Six-year Plan Update to reflect FY 2017 expenditures and tuition and fee charges consistent with the College's FY 2017 operating budgets as approved by the Board in April, 2016.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Visitors recognizes the incremental state support for operations provided by the Commonwealth for FY 2018 and as a result, the update reduces the planned in-state undergraduate tuition increase for incoming students from 7.5% to 4.4%. The Board will take formal action on in-state undergraduate tuition for FY 2018 at its November 2016 meeting.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That FY 2018 expenditures as proposed in the College's original Six-Year Plan are adjusted to reflect the impact of FY 2017 budget actions. Planned FY 2018 expenditures include $11 million in College support supplemented by state funding.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in response to the Commonwealth's direction that the Virginia Institute of Marine Science prepare a separate Six-Year Plan, the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary approves the Institute's Six-Year Plan Update to reflect FY 2017 expenditures consistent with the Institute's FY 2017 operating budget as approved by the Board, and FY 2018 expenditures as proposed in the Institute's original Six-Year Plan adjusted to reflect the impact of any state funding actions.

The Board recognizes that on August 26, 2016, the Governor of Virginia, at a joint meeting of the House Appropriations, House Finance, and Senate Finance committees of the General Assembly, identified a general fund revenue shortfall of approximately $1.5 billion reflecting an FY 2016 shortfall in revenues and transfers of $278 million and reduced revenue projections in both years of the 2016-18 biennium. The immediate impact on the university is to eliminate support for the state's share of the FY 2017 proposed 3%, merit-based salary increase for faculty and staff. To date, institutions of higher education have not been asked to develop budget reduction plans. When and if such a request will come is unknown.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
NAMING OF KAPLAN ARENA

Since arriving on campus as students, James R. Kaplan '57 and Jane Thompson Kaplan '56 have been exemplary members of the William & Mary community and loyal supporters of their alma mater. Building on a long and benevolent history of philanthropy, Mr. and Mrs. Kaplan made a most generous commitment to the university's For the Bold Campaign.

As an undergraduate, Jane Kaplan served as president of Kappa Chi Kappa service fraternity and as a member of the Flat Hat news staff, the synchronized swimming team, Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and the Panhellenic Council. In addition, she led a Brownie troop of Girl Scouts in Williamsburg. Her commitment and service to William & Mary have only grown since her years as a student, including as a class agent, fund agent, and member of the Annual Fund Board of Directors, Williamsburg Alumni Association Chapter, and Muscarelle Museum of Art Board of Trustees. She has also co-chaired the Tribe Club's Lord Botetourt Auction and created the Wine & Run for the Roses auction for the Muscarelle Museum of Art. In 2016, Mrs. Kaplan received the Alumni Medallion.

Jim Kaplan, a Pennsylvania native, was highly recruited to play basketball at William & Mary. He was a three-year starter and a team captain as a senior while amassing 863 points and 341 rebounds during his career. Mr. Kaplan was also a ROTC cadet and member of the Society of the Scabbard & Blade. After graduating with a degree in physical education, Mr. Kaplan was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, serving as a missile officer until 1961. He then went to work as a field engineer with Cornell Dubilier Electronics, rising to president of the company in 1978. He went on to serve as its chairman, chief executive officer, and owner.

Mr. Kaplan has served as a trustee of William & Mary's Endowment Association, a board member of the Society of the Alumni, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Athletic Educational Fund. He was inducted into the William & Mary Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987 and in 1989 established the James R. Kaplan Family Athletic Scholarship for the men's basketball team. He received the Distinguished Military Alumni Award from the Society of 1775 in 1990 and the Alumni Medallion in 2002.

Together, the Kaplans have been a powerful force for William & Mary. They led a fundraising campaign for Catholic Campus Ministries, co-chaired the AEF's Endowment Committee, were members of the steering committee for the Campaign for William and Mary, and are now honorary co-chairs of the For the Bold Campaign.

In 2005, the arena within William & Mary Hall was named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kaplan in recognition of their decades of steadfast support.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President and in recognition of Jim and Jane Kaplan's lifetime of support to their alma mater broadly and athletics specifically, the Board of Visitors of the College of William & Mary hereby names the entirety of William & Mary Hall in their honor; it shall henceforth be known exclusively as "Kaplan Arena;" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be presented to Jim and Jane Kaplan, with the best wishes and grateful thanks of the Board of Visitors and the entire College community.
