Tiger Team Update: Summer Semester

Charge

- Develop a robust, feasible undergraduate summer term proposal
- Characterize its benefits and challenges
- Test and evaluate operationally and financially

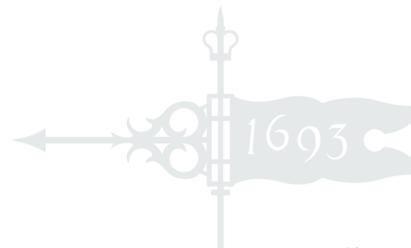

Key Findings

- Need to assess the attractiveness to prospective students
- Incentives more desirable than requirements
- Many opportunities (non-summer internships, curricular flexibility, unique academic and cocurricular experiences, etc.)

Next Steps

- Evaluate the attractiveness to prospective students via the positioning study
- Establish a steering committee to continue this work and to align it with strategic planning
- Develop a pilot that expands summer offerings and opportunities over a two- to three-year period

Tiger Team Update: Continuing Education

Charge

- Explore potential models of continuing education
- Identify the most viable option(s)
- Characterize benefits and challenges
- Evaluate feasibility

Key Findings

- Requirements for success
 - Advance the mission and extend the brand
 - Enable innovation (more nimble, less constrained)
 - Generate meaningful revenues
- Changes in location and modality do not cannibalize existing programs

Next Steps

- Engage consultant
 - Where is the best market?
 - What is the right modality?
 - What program is the best fit?
- Propose operating model based on findings
