

William & Mary Confucius Institute Proudly Presents

TRADITIONAL CHINESE CUSTOMS

Because of China's long history and diverse people, the country has developed many unique traditions. This course will teach students about traditional Chinese customs, including weddings, daily life, festivals and holidays, raising children, table manners, regional specialties from different parts of China, and interacting with other family members, as well as other members of society. During class, students will see pictures and videos taken in traditional China, and interact with each other to practice what they have learned.

Instructor: Professor Guanxin Shi

Location: Rowe House, 314 Jamestown Rd

Dates: 7/9 - 8/1, 2019

Time: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 5:10—6:10 PM

Course Fees: $80 for Community Members
$40 for W&M Students, Staff, & Faculty

Registration: <http://www.wm.edu/sites/confuciusinstitute>

Contact: wmci@wm.edu or (757)-221-1286

Follow us on Twitter
@wmconfucius

Like us on Facebook
William & Mary Confucius Institute