

Challenges and opportunities facing the 26th President of the College of William and Mary

- the capital campaign
- the relationship with the Commonwealth of Virginia and the local community
- advocate for the liberal arts and the unique strengths of our graduate and professional schools

Desired Qualities of the 26th President of the College of William and Mary

- a national academic leader and a recognized public intellectual
- whose style is open, participatory, and sensitive to the needs and concerns of faculty, staff and students and that reinforces the culture at William and Mary
- who recognizes that the top fund raising goals go toward academic priorities

Items to include in the draft challenge document

- commitment to strong faculty governance
- commitment to diversity
- attention to use of language

Approved 9/28/04