<http://hdl.handle.net/10288/13360>

I've skimmed these rather rapidly, picking up representative entries, but seeing nothing directly concerning slaves owned by the College or things directly relating to them.

Due at Lady Day 1754:

A handwritten ledger entry for the year 1754, titled "Negroes." The entry lists expenses for various boys, with columns for the number of boys, the amount in pounds, shillings, and pence, and a running total. The entries are as follows:

	Mr. Squire's John Montour
	Negroes.
	Mr. Graham's Boy	2	10	—
25.	Mr. G. Braxton's Boy	—	8	4

28.	Mr. Dyre's Boy	1	14	—
33.	Mr. Fox's Boy	1	11	4
		8	8	11

1755:

A handwritten ledger entry for the year 1755, titled "Negroes." The entry lists expenses for various boys, with columns for the number of boys, the amount in pounds, shillings, and pence, and a running total. The entries are as follows:
