

Please use this form if you are submitting a proposal for the 17th Annual Lemon Project Spring Symposium, which will be held March 26-27, 2027, in Williamsburg, Virginia. We will accept submissions until October 5, 2026.

We thank you for your time spent taking this survey.
Your response has been recorded.

*The Lemon Project: A Journey of Reconciliation is accepting proposals from individuals and groups of 3-4 panelists.

Please note that individual presenters usually have fifteen minutes to present. Panels usually have an hour and fifteen minutes to present.

Please indicate if you are submitting a(n):

Individual
Submission

Panel
Submission

*What is your full name?

*What is your email address?

What are your pronouns?

This year's conference will take place in person in Williamsburg, Virginia. Because of limited staffing, we most likely will not be able to accommodate virtual presenters.

I understand that I will be presenting in person in Williamsburg, Virginia.

*What is your community or university affiliation (if any)? For example, the community you live in, the university you attend or work at, or a group that you associate with.

*Please indicate whether you are a:

Community Member

Descendant Community Member

Genealogist or family historian

Undergraduate Student

Graduate/Professional Student

University/college faculty, staff, or administrator

Independent Historian

Not Listed

*What is the title of your submission?

*Provide a summary of your proposal (1020 characters maximum).

This should include a brief discussion of how your presentation relates to the symposium's theme, and/or a question that you will attempt to answer and/or a call to action. This will be included in the online program.

0/1020

*Please provide a brief biography (750 character maximum). *This will be included in the online program.

0/750