

Professionals & Professional Faculty: General Meeting

Wednesday, February 18, 2009 8:30-10:00 a.m.

Tidewater B, Sadler Center

I. Welcome

II. Professionals and Professional Faculty Assembly: work so far

- A. Election of officers
- B. Selection of Executive Committee (includes committee chairs)
- C. Committee memberships: introductions by chairs

III. Opportunities to have a voice/participate in campus initiatives

- A. Legislative Day in Richmond
- B. Charter Day representation
- C. Provost candidates -- breakfast meetings
- D. Strategic Plan input
- E. new personnel policies and procedures, such as revised PPF evaluation process

IV. Strategic Plan input – Tom Rideout, chair of PPFA Strategic Plan Committee

Note: PPFA's input is due March 1 to the Provost. We need your ideas!

Grand Challenge 1: PPFA team leader=Lisa Grimes
Lead higher education as a model liberal arts university.

Grand Challenge 2: PPFA team leader=Vernon Hurte
Build and support a more fully diverse W&M community that demonstrates the strengths of inclusion.

Grand Challenge 3: PPFA team leader=Tom Rideout
Build an ever more engaging educational environment that maximizes student learning, fosters personal development and inspires a lifelong commitment to W&M.

Grand Challenge 4: PPFA team leader=Mary Molineux
Develop and implement a business plan that maximizes revenue sources and ensures transparent resource allocation in support of College priorities and needs.

Grand Challenge 5: PPFA team leader=Wayne Boy
Provide adequate human and physical resources to sustain a 21st century liberal arts university.

Grand Challenge 6: PPFA team leader=Randy Williams
Articulate more clearly W&M's identity, mission, and goals, and implement a more effective model for internal and external communication.

V. PPFA's Goals and Objectives for 2009-1010

We need your ideas!